

Mr. Jewell Howard

November 2, 1942 - May 1, 2013

Mr. Jewell Howard was born November 2, 1942 in Doerun, Georgia the son of the late Jessie James Howard, Sr. and Mattie Belle Lucas Howard. Jewell later moved to Winter Haven, Florida where he lived for many years and married his high school sweetheart Joan. He then moved his family to Orlando, Florida. He was employed by Orange County and after years of service in the Environmental Department Jewell retired.

Jewell strongly believed in family spending time together, enjoying one another as often as possible. He loved family gatherings which always included good friends, good food, laughter, and reminiscing of the good old days and creating new memories. He simply made any environment fun and unforgettable with his loving ways, realness and sense of humor.

Other things he enjoyed were fishing, traveling and collecting Bald Eagles figurines, a collection to be admired.

Jewell was adored and deeply respected by many and will truly be missed all ALL. He was truly one of a kind, indeed!!

He was preceded in death by his parents, father-in-law, Ike Denmark, Sr., mother-in-law, Elizabeth (Sweetie) Denmark, two sisters, Annie Mae Howard Gardner, Ella Mae Howard, four brothers, Willie B. Howard, Alphonso Howard, Jessie James Howard, Jr. and Jessie Key.

Jewell leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Joan Howard; son, Fredrick L. Howard (Patrice) of Orlando, sister, Lottie Bradley (Arthur "Bubba") of Rochester, New York; brother, Robert Howard (Alean) of Deorun, Georgia; five brothers-in-law, Verdell Gardner, Sr. of Winter Haven, Clarence Denmark (Diane) of Chicago, Richard Denmark (Dorene) of Auburndale, Cleveland Denmark of Chicago, and Ike Denmark, Jr.; sister-in-law, Essie Key of Orlando; six grandchildren, Stephanie Y. and Marceline Roman of Tampa, Fredrick L. Howard, Jr., Dedrick R. Howard, Brodrick J. Howard, Tyson Stephenson and Junior Stephenson, all of Orlando, Florida, Devoted friend Alvin "Boobie" Henderson; and a very special group of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.
