

Joan Cameron

December 11, 1941 - October 10, 2025

Joan Cameron lived in the Albany area for 50 Years. She graduated from Linton High School. She continued her education and became a nurse. She worked as a surgical nurse for many years in local hospitals in the capital region.

She is predeceased by her husband Raymond Cameron.

She relocated to Davenport Fl in 1990 where she continued her nursing Career as office manager for a medical practice.

She was an active member of the Community of faith Methodist Church in Davenport Fl. And enjoyed her knitting group the Knit Witt's that made sweaters and clothing for needy babies

One sister Cathleen Messina, niece Adina Mincher, nephew Jason Taluto