

Joanne Goerndt

September 5, 1931 - February 11, 2020

Joanne Lee {Foyen} Goerndt was born in North Dakota on September 5th, 1931 to Clarence and Elva Foyen. She is survived by two brothers, Jerry and John Foyen. She married Dennis Goerndt on February 17th, 1951. They had four daughters Denise, Teresa, Jodi and Susan. Denise has three children; Jeffrey, Joel and Jennifer and three grandchildren, Sydney, Aidan and Olivia are great grandchildren to Dennis and Joanne. Teresa had one son; Jon. Jodi has four boys, Shawn, Ryan, Neil and Steven; and 2 grandkids. Susan has four kids, Nicholas, Jessica, Jimbo and Caryn and combined six great grandkids between them.

Joanne was a wonderful seamstress; she made clothes but also did alterations for family and friends. Joanne was also an artist; painting and drawings. Joanne was an excellent cook and baker. Joanne also worked in a floral shop in North Dakota as a floral designer. My parents moved to St. Paul, Minnesota in approximately 1952 after living in Breckenridge, MN. when Denise was an infant. In 1968 {transferred from North Western Bell to Southern Bell} Dennis and Joanne moved to Orlando, FL and remained here to date. Joanne worked at the Orlando International Airport gift shops for several years and continued a friendship with several co workers. Joanne was a kind loving lady; she was loved by many friends and her family was very important to her. She is missed desperately by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.
