

Joe Castaneda

July 19, 1982 - February 7, 2026

Joe Castaneda, 43, of Orlando, Florida passed away on February 7, 2026. He was born on July 19, 1982 in Bay City, Texas to James and Mary White. Joe is survived by his mother, Mary White; father James White; daughter, Taylor Warfield (Sheve Warfield); son, Joe Castaneda III; sisters, Josie Paris (Alex), Julia Block and his beautiful granddaughter, EverLeigh Warfield. Joe loved his nieces and nephews, Ella Block, Eliana Paris, LA Paris and Zion Paris. Joe adored his kids, Joe III and Taylor, he always had great stories to tell about them. Joe had a contagious smile and enjoyed talking to people and making everyone laugh. Joe was also a jokester and would like to hide and scare his family. Joe loved his family. Joe enjoyed helping people in any way he could. He had a love for detailing vehicles and put a lot of pride in it. He was also a passionate fan of soccer and was a great player in his younger days. He still enthusiastically followed the sport while he lived here in Orlando. Joe will be truly missed. A Celebration of Life will be held soon for family and friends in Orlando and in his home state of Washington.
