

Joe Hiron McArthur

July 22, 1933 - August 29, 2020

Joe Hiron McArthur, born July 22nd, 1933-Passed August 29th 2020.

Joe was born in Preston, Mississippi in the summer of 1933 to parents Mary Dow and Richmond M. McArthur. He is the youngest son of seven siblings. He enlisted in the military very early, serving the majority of his career in the United States Air Force, 108th Division.

In early 1955 while stationed in Orlando, Florida, he met Elizabeth (Betty) Joan Davis at a diner called the Beachcomber Restaurant and Drive-In. They were married later that summer and have one son and three daughters.

During his military career he was stationed all over the world in Germany, Spain, Lybia and several other countries, before retiring from service in Orlando with his family. He then became the head of Aircraft Services at Orlando International Airport/McCoy and continued there until civilian retirement.

Joe loved to fish. He spent a lot of time taking advantage of the Florida waterways throughout his life to do so with his family. Whether it was with his wife, children, grandchildren or great-grandchildren, he spent many hours enjoying the hobby at lakes, beaches and rivers around the state.

He loved his family very much and knew how much they loved him as well. He is preceded in Heaven by his wife Elizabeth, parents Mary Dow & Richmond McArthur, brothers BR (Son) and James (Butch) McArthur, sisters Mildred (Sis) Landrum & Nancy June Luke, grandchildren Michael Fern & Josh Meacham.

He is survived by many loved ones all over the country: Son, Terry Meacham, daughters Pamela Milks, Debra Fern (Michael Fern Sr.), and Sharon McArthur. Sisters Julia Pettigrew and Bobby Copeland. Grandchildren Amy, Jared, Joseph, Jonathan, Heather, Christina, Sarah, Joleen, Adam, Hayley and Tiffany. Great-grandchildren Elizabeth, Jacob, Tyler, Ana, Spiros, Zander, Riley, Mila, Livi, Jax, Joshua and Sawyer. Many beloved nieces, nephews and cousins.
