“ One year yesterday but still always thinking of the lovely happy times we shared together and all the funny times like him chasing Louby around the pool with his feet in her face hahaaahaa and inside the globe at Epcott!!!! It always makes me laugh out loud when I think about it. He had a great sense of humour and a kindly presence. <3 Thinking of the family and sending my love and best wishes (sorry I missed the actual day :()

“ I had the pleasure to work with John or "Single" as he was affectionately known to us at NatWest. His truly unique work ethic and style will always be fondly remembered. I'm sure I speak for all those that worked with him when I say how dearly missed he will be

I'll always remember you extolling the virtues of a grand voyager !

“ We were really shocked to hear about the passing of John and our condolences go out to his family. We rent his lovely place in Chislehurst in London and I got to meet him just before we took over the tenancy. He struck me as a very pleasant and outgoing person, so full of life and genuine.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Carol and the family.

“ It was so sad to hear that John had passed away. He lived life to the full, got fully involved in everything he turned his hands to and left all of us with very fond memories.

I will always remember him for being the man who got things done, at work. He had the great ability to get people around the table and "crack heads together" in order to solve problems. And this was always done with charm, good temperament and the confidence that the right outcome would be achieved.

He will be missed, but he will certainly be remembered by the many people who had the privilege to know him.

“ Everyone has pretty much said it all about Uncle John's kindness and generosity.

So I will just share with you that I will remember him for calling me "Bat Neil" when I was much younger...in fact, he even called me "Bat Neil" when we bumped into each other now and then at Chislehurst station on the way to work in London just a year or so ago!

“ John was a kind and generous friend to us and our children; he really delighted in sharing his enjoyment of life. We remember gloriously noisy dinners and sunny pool parties with Carol and John; we always looked forward to the marvellous dazzle of welcoming lights (surely brought back from the States, because no-one had decorations like them until years later) as we turned the corner to Tamarlane at Christmastime; and we saw in the Millennium there. John liked to get things done, his energy was inspirational, and he was always so encouraging - John was the first person to buy one of Roger's paintings! Along with his family and his many friends, we shall miss John. Our thoughts, prayers and love are with Carol, Niki and Lucy

“ There are 3 things that will always be in my mind when I think of my Uncle John.

The first is as a kid growing up he was the tallest/biggest person I had ever seen, he was the Big Friendly Giant to me and my brother Neil!

Secondly as my Dad touched on he was very kind person who would help anyone out if he could without a moments thought, usually with our family that was DIY!!

Lastly I will always remember him for loving all things American whether it be the sports, the cars, the food and the people. Looking at all the lovely comments on this tribute wall that seemed to reciprocated. His dream was to live out there and although it is still hard to believe what has happened, he did at least get to live a bit of that dream.

“ We have so many happy memories of such lovely times with John, Carol and Lucy in Florida, Disney, Celebration, Breakfast in Time Square, New York and the QM2- and Chislehurst. John was such a joy to be around - so full of life and fun, yet so hard working and always such a friend. We could not have wished for better times in Florida than being with John, Carol and Lucy. John was such an inspiration - his constant attention to so many different pursuits he and Carol were involved in - he was never too busy to have a friendly chat and always so welcoming. He was an honourable man and refreshingly honest. We will miss him so much. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Carol, Lucy, Nicky, Tony and the girls.

I remember some great pool parties, a day trip to France, being mesmerised by John's carphone (which was the first I'd seen) and a trip to ITN to watch the evening news! John was always so generous and had an infectious zest for life that rubbed off on all of us. Thinking of Niki, Carol, Lucy and all the family. Love Alison x

“ We have had the pleasure of having John and Carol as close friends for 32 years, having met at Bromley High School new parents's evening in Sept 1982. For many years we had group dinners several times a year with three other couples. Great fun! We have wonderful memories of many holidays at Centre Parks/Sun Parks when the girls were young. The smell of John's fried breakfast was a signal it was time to get up and get moving. When we were all in De Haan for New Year taking photos of us on a bicycle for eight I realised the camera did not have film in it. John loved to tease me about taking our Christmas pictures with a camera that did not have film in it!

We owe so much to John! He is the one who suggested we get into property and we have him to thank for increasing our pension income through rental property in the UK. We also have him to thank for Florida! One Christmas Eve as we were serving Christmas dinner he sent us pictures of a house in Formosa Gardens which was for sale and said we must buy it. Buy it we did and we have had ten wonderful years of holidays there. He even asked if we would like to buy their first Florida home from them in 2003 (which we did)!

John has been a great friend, always so kind and considerate. He has always cared deeply about his friends and always kept in close touch. Tuesday nights at The Ramblers will never be the same!

John has been such a big part of our lives it is so hard to believe we won't see him again. To Carol, Niki, Lucy, Tony, Heidi and Jocelyn we send all our love and sympathy. We think of you as part of our family. We feel blessed to have had such a wonderful friendship with John and will miss him terribly. May John rest in peace.

“ John was probably the most generously natured man that I have known. I cannot remember him talking meanly of anyone, although he was a shrewd judge of character. He was always positive and supportive, especially to friends. His family knows better than his friends just how hard he worked and he was so successful too, achieving a life style that anyone would envy. All of this was his own achievement and he was an example to many of us. I certainly admired him greatly – and we will miss him tremendously. We personally will be left with some fond laughter-filled memories of John and his family. These social pleasures should be set beside the gifts of employment and education that he spread through this country, whether through his own workplace or his Livery Company. He was immensely proud of his city, his country and its traditions, whilst at the forefront of technological development. He was a man of his times and I was privileged to have shared them with him.

“ I have known John for as long as Carol as I was with her when she met him. He was a sight to see with his long curly hair atop his 6ft plus frame combined with his amazing dress sense. Carol liked him from the outset (the MGB helped). I was honoured to be his best man at their wedding and to have spent so much time him with over the years.

John was always ready to help those of us who were not to diy minded. That is why he helped me a lot. His generosity has rightly been mentioned by his friends. Iris, Mark and Neil will miss him as much as I will. The boys particularly remember the holidays we had together.

“ John was a great friend from when we were in Engineering training after leaving school. He was full of enthusiasm and energy. We worked together in BEA/British Airways where his liveliness abounded and impressed everyone. He was sensitive to all and always had time for others.

It is very saddening that this has happened and he was greatly missed at a recent MoD Apprentice reunion where we all remembered him.

My sadness is genuine and marked yet I am sure only a drop in the sea when compared to Carol and family who I pray can be given the strength to carry through this and one day live their lives whilst still feeling John's presence.

“ We have so many fond and happy memories of times spent with our special friends Carol and John. Holidays in Tenerife when Lucy was small, trips to Florida, outings on boats, loads of super BBQ's and days in France to name a few. Peter and John buying and wearing the same shirts, fireworks at Tamarlane with fireworks chasing Uncle Peter up the garden, lots of shared meals, laughs and fun. We always enjoyed each other's company and there will be a large void in our lives without our dear friend Johnny. He was always kind, generous and thoughtful and there whenever we needed him. “ I worked with John 12 years ago. He was a very kind and jolly person, who took time to listen to everyone and was very personable. We got talking one day when I asked why there was a large picture of mud on his desk. He replied by saying it's a small house he was going to build in Florida. My response 'Wow' I must have looked bewildered. John then looked at me and said 'it's all possible Bimal just work hard and you can achieve great things'.

We bought a place in December and John sent me a congratulatory email. It's amazing how much of an inspiration he was for me. My thoughts are with Johns family at this time. A Gentle giant gone too soon!

Time they say is a great healer but I say may be not so because we feel John's absence more and more with passing time because the realisation that he is not going to share his very warm big smile with us again just so painful. John was so easy to please and he had a great appreciation for little things that he knew mattered to others. We loved John and still miss him so much. We shall always remember John and his love for life and little pleasures of life together with the big things that made him smile so warmly. RIP John. Leah Bruce and Donnika

Thinking of Carol and Louby in the states without John seems so unreal. Praying for you both that you will have peace and be always surrounded by your many friends who come to visit and comfort you. Yes John is indeed a household name to many, the mention which brings a smile and deep sorrow because John is not coming to brighten up the room.
