

John Finn Towles III

May 5, 1952 - February 16, 2018

John Finn Towles, III was born May 5, 1952 in Williamson, West Virginia to the late John Finn Towles, Jr. and Margaret Anderson Towles. After a lengthy illness he was called home to see his Lord on Friday, February 16, 2018.

John was educated in the public school system in Kentucky where he graduated from Belfry High School and attended Howard University. John went on to enlist in the United States Air Force where he was honorably discharged after years of service and then resumed active duties in the United States Air Force Reserve.

After moving to Philadelphia, John was employed with the Philadelphia Fire Department serving as a Paramedic and Firefighter during his time of 26 years before retiring.

During his later years at the Fire Department, John met and married Helen "Faye". With his newly acquired family, John, Faye and Kyle relocated to Orlando, Florida.

John was a simple man who enjoyed life and his family. John was a strong card player, enjoyed fishing, loved to barbeque and had a green thumb for gardening.

Even though John was retired, he still needed something to occupy his time. John became employed by the National Express which was located at the Orlando International Airport, where John worked for the last 16 years.

John has left a great legacy; his wife of 19 years, Faye; sons John F. Towles, IV (JJ), Chared Goodwin and Kyle Hatcher; daughters April (Anthony) Smalls, Cori Berry; brother Michael (Mako) Towles; sisters Ruth (Everette) Curry, Dawnita (Andy) Anderson, Audrey (Vernon) Murrell, Renata Towles and Maria Towles; grandchildren Michael Dabney, Jr, Brittany Smalls, Shawn Smalls; and aunts Juanita Hooks and Savolia Joyce; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
