

Jonathan Gonzalez

April 28, 1988 - April 28, 2019

My son was born April 28, 1988 and he passed away April 28, 2019. He was 31. What I can say about my son was that he always persevered, his laughter was contagious, he was so much fun to be around as his multitude of friends can attest to that, and his mother as well as his aunt which is his mother too loved him soooo much. He will be missed. He had a big personality. I want you all to persevere, be successful and NEVER give up. He accomplished what he wanted and he wanted to continue. He graduated from Nursing University on April 25th, 2019. I guess God has other plans for him. Please know that he'll be all around us in spirit. Thank you all for the outpouring of love and support.

“ What can I say papo, it has taken me a minute to come here because I'm still in denial. Is like I'm still waiting...for you to walk in thru that door and say here I am! I was just playing Giovany..... I'm so empty with out you. You and I was good together. I never met someone that could just read me like a open book; a dude that was so smart down to earth. He always had it together. 2 years that you gave me and with that is enough for me to tell you that I was ready to spend my whole life time with you..... I know you are happy and with God now, please guide me baby, don't let me go. Now that you're with GOD I know you see me and read my thoughts and see my emotions. You know what kind of person I truly am, with that being said I need you to stay on my right side because this journey I'm about to take it requires you my angel and GOD knows why. I talk to him all the time; I'm weak and I need more strength. Things will get better pa, but as of now.. I'm holding on real tight. I'm not good with words man but in my head there's so much thoughts... I love you the love I have for you is immense and you know this now; you trust me now when I was always saying I'll always be here and protect you. Now I need you to protect me and guide me.

“ Jonathan, the memories we have shared through the years I will never forget. You knew how to brighten anyone’s day. Your laugh was contagious and your spirt uplifting. I cherish every moment I spent with you and even it we haven’t talk too much recently, I have followed your journey the whole way. I’m so proud that you got to accomplish your dream. I still remember when you first told me that you wanted to go to Nursing school, I was so proud of how you were changing your life for the better. You are probably the most fun person I’ll ever meet. You and I would stay up all night laughing and playing the card game spit. We would go out and have crazy nights or just hang around my apartment and talk about life, aliens, and all kinds of crazy stuff. The weeks we spent at the resort laughing and having a blast. I will never forget you and you definitely made an impact not only on my life but the worlds. You were such a vibrant soul. I love you so much and wish I had the chance to say goodbye. Forever in my heart and soul. JG. #42.50❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ My dear, Jonathan I am so proud of you, you turned your life around and chose an honorable and compassionate profession to help others. I told you from the start that you were going to be a kick-ass nurse and to keep moving forward with your career no matter the challenge, and you did so with humility. We bonded in a special way, me as a mentor and you as a brilliant young man with a bright future, but it was more than that... I admire your love and commitment to your family, specially your mom and brother. Your sharp humor, smile and wit, and above all your sincerity to call things as they were. You never camouflaged yourself, you were an open book sharing your life with honesty and sincerity. Your physical life was short on this planet, but eternal in the universe. God prepared you for His special calling, His angel of mercy and gave you your special wings on your birthday. There is much work to do in the care of the ill and destitute so I know that you have rolled up your sleeves and are busy at work. Thus not with us physically, always with us in spirit. God bless, Jonathan, may your light shine bright and eternal in service to the afflicted and destitute in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

“ Jonathan was in our nursing school family. He was one of the misfits of our tiny circle. He was also my friend. When my life fell apart he was my confidant. He kept my secrets and never judged, and I know he was dealt crap hand after crap hand, but he never stopped striving to be better. I wish you peace my friend. To your beloved mother, thank you for bringing Jonathan into this world to touch my life, to touch so many of our lives, he has left us too soon. Please watch over us Boo

I thank you for being the gentle soul , and amazing , brother brining so much joy into all our lives !! No one in this world could ever replace you the love we had for each other was one of kind as your older sister all the good we're had all the experiences laughing so much that we would cry the times with your nieces and nephew letting the girls get away with murder .. lol and all you would say in dad voice “ no me jodas “ lmao the times we would sit in bed and watch bridesmaids!! It's happening lmao so many incredible memories !!! All the times you did my makeup .the hell and back we went through in PR as you would say sis that island we was on some survival bs !! Lmao omg we laugh over the dumbest things I felt that only you understood me like I did you !! how much love I felt when I was around you ! Half of me is gone and I know I won't be complete till we meet again . I love you with all my heart and soul pa and I WILL never ever let go . I love you my angel thank you for giving me so much life & laughter ❤️ Fly my angel .. say hi to dad and tell him I said no me jodes ! 🙏🏻👉🏻😭💔💔💙

“ Can't find any pictures because I'm out the country. I got the news of your death right before I was going to say happy birthday. In bleaker our last year you was my homie. My nigga. Couldn't nobody say or do anything to you without me being there to step up. Literally smoked hella weed together in the park lol. Although not seeing you in close to 11yrs it's hard to write this because you really was genuine friend during our time. Them Bronx rides was no joke to Bedford park. Literally have so many memories of eating like 5 snicker bars high as shit in Jenny crib giggling. Last time I seen you I had told you don't ever feel like anything you tell me would make me change my thought about you. Was always my homie and even in peace you will be. Dope person all around and always will be. My condolences to your family. To your little brother who I haven't seen since he was sleeping on the couch lol. Understand that no matter how hard it is just understand your brother would rather see you happy with life then sad living.

“ Jonathan .. we met and we were like 2 peas in a pod. Immediately we had a strong connection and bond. Where as most people spend time with friends at clubs or restaurants; we had tons of sleep overs. cooking cleaning and watching scary movies. We were the type of friends to sit outside and drink wine together or I'd help you with your homework or you'd do my make up. I came over a few days before your graduation and I filled your whole white board of all your amazing traits. I hope you really know how much I loved you but I think you do. It's so hard to except that you're gone. You were my go to. I don't have family here in Florida but you opened up and loved me with no limit, your home, your family. I'm sick that I have to write this goodbye to you. I met you through Gio but our friendship evolved beyond. I know you would want us to accomplish something so I'm going to push us for that. I'm going to try my best to do what I think Jonathan would do. I love you forever and you are irreplaceable and unforgettable.
