“ Baby brother I miss you and I'm still struggling but God keeps me going. If it wasnt for God I dont know.
Soon will be your bday and I left some ballons and I keep you flowers. I know God makes no mistakes but I didn't get my time. I waited patiently when I should have interrupted and took some time.
Now you left me here.
I miss you so much!!
I love you Jon.

“ God my heart still aches months later and who I am and how I view this world will never be the same.

I miss my brother so much and I think of him constantly. Jonathan I love you more than words could ever say. I always wanted the best for you and I saw all your potential. I wanted you to enjoy life and be happy and you seemed to be doing so. Life causes us to get wrapped up and makes us think we have forever. I sat back and waited patiently for our time. Now it will never come until God calls me home to join you. I feel robbed.

I love you forever.

Your sis

“ Baby brother I miss you. I will miss your smile and laughter and how you loved to provide wisdom, knowledge and spiritual seeds to those around you. I will miss your intelligence and knowing you were there if I needed you, and how you always provided me with strength and inspiration when I was down. My heart hurts in the worst way but I know you want me to be strong.

God wanted you to come home so although I wish we had more time, I will cherish the time that we did have. I will love you forever, never forget you and carry your memory in my heart until God calls me home to join you.
