

Jordan Renee King

October 4, 2000 - June 1, 2021

Jordan Renee King was born on October 4, 2000 in Durham, North Carolina to Nyota Ya-Ausbuhi King and Thomas Jay Taylor. She passed away on June 1, 2021 in Orlando, Florida. Her generosity, laughter and kind spirit will forever be missed by her family and friends.

Her early childhood education was completed in the Durham Public school system. Upon moving to Palm Beach County, Florida she continued her education in middle and high school and graduated from Forest Hill High School in 2018.

Jordan accepted Christ into her life at the tender age of 12. She along with her mother became members of New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church.

Jordan lived a life full of travel and exploration. By the young age of 18, Jordan had traveled to 5 different African countries: Ghana, Senegal, The Gambia, Togo and Benin. She also travelled throughout the eastern United States attending various family vacations.

Family was very important and instrumental in Jordan's life. She often would spend hours on the phone with one of her three brothers. She really enjoyed sharing truck rides with her Grandpa John while in Florida. She enjoyed the many nature walks with her Grandma Dianne while in North Carolina.

Her paternal grandmother, Diane Taylor; her great-grand parents, Shirley Ennis, George Ennis and Miriam T. Carroll preceded her in death. Jordan will be cherished and remembered by her devoted mother, Nyota Ya-Asubuhi King; loving father, Thomas Jay Taylor; three beloved brothers, Taveion Taylor, Kylik Taylor and Monyae McDonald; grandmother, Dianne King; grandfather, John W. Stroman; aunts, Yvonne King, Jamila Stroman and Shari Downey. A very special friend, Timothy Canty. There are also a host of numerous sorrowful relatives and friends.
