

Jorge Luis Melendez III

April 11, 1975 - June 4, 2017

Jorge Melendez, a Paraeducator for Our Children's Academy/Victory Ridge Academy in Lake Wales, FL passed away unexpectedly at the age of 42 on June 4, 2017 while visiting family in Philadelphia, PA.

He is survived by his mother Cassandra Velazquez; his wife, Shelly Comer; his daughters, Jayden Melendez and Leia Melendez; his grandmother, Maria Roca; his sisters, Dalila Rios, Amandalia Quiroa, and Darlene Velazquez; his brothers, Aaron Velazquez, Will Velazquez, Jose Velazquez, Miguel Velazquez, and Victor Velazquez.

Jorge was born in Philadelphia on April 11, 1975 to Jorge Luis Melendez II and Cassandra Velazquez. After high school he relocated to Orlando, FL where he thoroughly enjoyed the "Florida Life." He fell in love with his sweetheart Shelly and they started a family.

Jorge was a devoted father to his daughters Jayden and Leia and enjoyed taking off to the beach whenever possible. He was an amazing chef and is remembered by many for the multiple restaurants he worked at in Orlando. The two he ultimately enjoyed the most were P.F. Changs and Seasons 52. Although it is most recent job as a Paraeducator in Lake Wales where he had found purpose. Being a father of child with autism, he was able to understand and connect with other children suffering from the same disability.

He has been loved and touched by so many that the list could go on and on.
Please join us for his celebration of life as we are missing him so much.

“ My wonderful beautiful sweetest nephew,

My head is spinning trying to understand. You are a great father, husband, brother, uncle, son, nephew, friend. The list goes on and on.

Life is soooooooooo unfair. I remember when you came into this world and all the good times and bad cause everything is not always peaches and cream. My heart is broken and full of sadness at the reality of your premature departure. Take care of your girls from above and be their Guardian through this thing called life. I will love you forever and always remember your funny ways. RIP my darling nephew. Until we meet again.

*Love you today, tomorrow and forever,
