“ Estoy contristada con la pérdida de su ser querido, bien sabemos que la muerte es algo que sucede día a día, pero hay una bella esperanza que nos traerá cierto nivel de paz. Por tal razón quería compartir con usted algunas palabras de consolación que le ayudaran en estos momentos difíciles, tal como me ayudaron a mí. Estas palabras se encuentran en la Biblia, si tiene Biblia le invito a que lea Hechos 24:15, Revelación 21:3, 4, Juan 5: 28,29, ahí notara que dichos textos hablan de la bella esperanza de la resurrección, solo podemos imaginar la alegría de volver abrazar a nuestro ser querido que ha fallecido. Para aprender de esta y muchas otras promesas solo hay que seguir el consejo de Juan 17:3. Con dicho pensamiento en mente le invito a que visite el siguiente enlace, <http://www.JW.org/es/publicaciones/libros/tratado-muertos-volver-a-vivir/> Ahí encontrara un artículo que habla más al respecto. ”

“ Happy Birthday to someone who has been tragically taken too early in life. You will stay always in our hearts. Even though we hadn't really spoken in the past couple years, these last few days have been filled with memories and moments shared. Remembering the person you were and wondering who you could have become. My favorite being that whenever you got knocked down, you always got back up. That is what I will remember and admire the most about you. As the angels helped lift you up this last time, I hope you knew how much you meant to all of us left behind. Rest in peace Jose.

“ Jose Carrion- My man. You will forever be a brother to me. I love you sir- I remember how excited you were when you first got your bike... and you had to call us to come help you after you toppled it over and screwed it up already, along with your leg. I scolded at you about how dangerous motorcycles are!- but you didn't care- you loved riding. At least you passed doing something you love. Since high school we've stayed in touch, even more so in the last few weeks. I hope our recent talks helped you find peace with your troubles and you left with your questions answered. R.I.P. 143. This is and will forever be one of my favorite pictures of you from one of the most epic weekends ever

“ To the family, especially Jose's mother.. I offer my deepest sympathy and sincere condolence. May the fond memories that you shared. Bring comfort to your heart. Let the promises made by God comfort you as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead. God promises that those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected. (John 5:28, 29) Death, pain, sorrow will be no more (Revelation 21:4) We will live forever here on earth in abundance of peace (Psalm 37:11, 29) God cannot lie, all his promises will come true (Titus 1:2) jw.org

“ I really don't know where to begin I write because I need to Keep busy Jose you were and are my youngest I remember every detail of your birth We share our own memories especially when we first got here to Orlando and you wanted to go the the toy store and I we got lost And we finally saw the the big jirafe and you got so happy cause we found the toy store on International Dr. The time I got on my inline and I fell that was scary. What about the time the car rolled out of the garage and your grandma was saying "pase el susto de la vaca" and you were what does she mean the cow scared her. I love and I can still hear you "hey mom", you Lefted too soon and it hurts so darn bad I don't know what to do . Love you forever - mami

Mother to mother...I know the love we have for our children. That no matter what they do that love is steady as ever. It never fades and it never changes. It is the most unconditional love there is. I remember you ALWAYS having his back. Good or bad and HE knew it better than anyone. You gained an angel. And you have family here in everyone who loved him. I pray you find peace in knowing you will see him again one day at the gates of heaven. You and the rest of the family are in my prayers. Thank YOU for sharing your baby boy with all of us!

“ Jose, I can't believe you're gone. It seems like just the other day we were sitting in class together, cracking jokes and not paying attention, hard to believe that was almost 8 years ago. You have always been such a good guy, so funny and so much fun. I always enjoyed running into you and catching up, I wish it happened before it was too late. Can't believe it happened so close to your birthday, my heart goes out to your family, I'm happy they at least had 25 joyful years filled with your light. Rest easy friend, you will be missed but impossible to forget.

“ I'm at a loss for words. So many memories of you. I just got off the phone with Michael and we were laughing about the old times. I remember when my Dalmatian smiled at you and you got so scared you jumped on Chris's back to get away from her. I remember in 6th grade right before school, riding my skateboard on your moms treadmill and falling off and the treadmill tore my shoulder up and you and Michael were laughing at me the whole way to school. I wish you could see how big my little boy has gotten and my daughter on the way. I love you bro and I'll miss you terribly.

“ I almost don't know what to say. Yet I have so much going through my head. So many great memories, so many regrets. Why didn't I reach out in December when I was missing you so much...and I couldn't figure out why that feeling to call you was so strong. It's funny how the Universe tries to tell us things. And we just don't pick up on it. I remember for weeks after I bought my blue truck you had to drive it because I just couldn't drive that crappy stick shift. I remember you always making fun of how I shifted and always trying to teach me to listen to the engine before I decided to shift. You pretty much taught me to drive a manual. I remember you getting it stuck at 520...it was a 2-wheel drive but you thought it was always worth a try. I will never forget the conversations we had before I left for the Army. Spending the entire summer of 2006 together....the Endless summer. I wish I could talk to you one last time...tell you how much you meant to me and how much you helped me grow as a person. I love you kid and I will miss you until we meet again.

“ God I'm going to miss you so much! We been threw so much over these last 10 years! I have always loved you & we have always told each other If we Ride and we go down & were not getting back up at lest were going out doing something we loved & holding on tight to eachother! It was always a joke that I prayed we never had to live or one us had to see other one go. I still to this day don't care what anyone has to say I always loved riding with you and feeling the wind between us & the feeling you wouldn't let anything happen to me. That's another thing I'm going to miss so much. Who do I cry to now on bad days? Go out & have drinks & make bad decisions with? You had the biggest heart I knew we had our Ups & Downs but at the end of the Day we knew were our friendship stand! God I love you and will miss you so much My Jose Cuervo??? “ My sincere condolences to the family. Losing a loved one is never easy, and when it's a young person it seems to hurt even more. Though there are no words that can take your pain away, perhaps some bible scriptures can bring comfort during this time. Revelations 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Another scripture that is very comforting is Acts 24:15 where God promises there will be a resurrection, and John 5:28,29 where Jesus states that there will come a time where those who are in their tombs will be resurrected.

These scriptures are very encouraging because it gives us hope of seeing again our loved ones who have passed away, but not only will we be able to see them, but touch them, hug them, and talk to them. To physically reunite with them and never have to let them go. These are promises that our heavenly Father makes us, and if you'd like to read them and see them for yourself, I encourage you to visit www.JW.org.

I hope these words can bring you comfort. Thank you kindly for allowing me to share these words with you and your family.
