“ Where do you start. Joe was just Joe, he was one of the biggest hustlers I ever met in my life I remember going to park my car to catch a flight and Joe pulled up driving the bus I was like “Joe what don’t you do” we just laughed. He was a genuine person if he had you he had you truly was the true meaning of take the shirt of your back to help someone. I remember when we first moved here to Florida in 2001 he and Norma went out there way to make sure we were always good and I never forgot that no matter were we saw eachother it was like we were together the day before that’s how he made you feel always. I’m grateful for the few talks we had these last couple of weeks I know your in Heaven and you will truly be missed and always loved. Thank you for letting me even have a space in your life Joe love and miss you always. ❤️🙏🙏

“ With my heart on my sleeve, I send my deepest condolences to my sister and family, I loved Joe for always being there for me and caring deeply for his family. The last trip we took together was to Virginia and we shared many moments together and I will always remember our early breakfast together and walks. Joe was many things to different walks of life, but to me he was family, and I will always treasure all of our times together and never forget him. Love you Joe, R.I.P. ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

“ Joe, I remember all of the nasty jokes you use to tell me when I was about 10 years old. I still tell them today. I always loved how you cared about those around you, and always asked me how Julius was and wanted to see pictures of him. I loved how you were one of the life of the parties. Always dancing, laughing, and having a blast. You and my dad were always nestled in a corner talking about life, telling jokes, and just shooting the breeze!! My childhood was great because of you!!

May you rest easy now!!! No more pain and suffering. What a party it must be up there!! Rejoice with those we've lost!! We love and miss you!!!
