“ My dad was stern as a young man supporting a wife and five children. He made some mistakes but as he grew older and realized his mistakes he tried to mend broken relationships and apologized for those mistakes. His last few years were spent enjoying time with me and my family in Orlando. I think he was happy that he was able to explain himself and asked for forgiveness. I will miss him and his stories of living in Puerto Rico as a young man. I love you.
