

Jose M. Ubarri

October 16, 1969 - November 20, 2023

Jose M. Ubarri, 54 of Orlando Florida passed away on November 20, 2023.

Joel survived by his wife of 34 years Milagros, 3 kids Joselito, Jaileen, and Nany, Jonathan and Alexis who he helped raised and 2 grandchildren Michael and Joel. Born in Rio Piedras in 1969, Joel loved to spend time with his family making them laugh and to go back home to Puerto Rico often. He touched the hearts of many and will be missed greatly for his undying loyalty, ability to make anyone laugh, and for his gift of making friends anywhere. We will continue to keep your memory alive and will love you until we are able to meet again.

“ José knew how to get under Edwin's skin and both would argue back and forth about the smallest things sometimes. Both knowing they weren't always serious. The laughter and smiles José brought to the shop made even the bad days seem like it was nothing. Looking at his toolbox now I can still hear out little daily jokes play out in my head. José could always tell when I was not having a good day or needed to chill out. "Easy papi, easy, not worth it." I will miss you my friend and I know you'll let me know when to take it easy in subtle ways from above.

“ I met you years ago as Chili not "Jose" and we became friends but most of all family. Your daughter became my daughter in law and my son became your son in law. He always called you mi Suegro and was very proud to say it to everyone. Now we have two beautiful grandsons. When they're older I will tell them all the laughs we shared. You always made me laugh with your crazy story's and jokes. I will always remember your favorite words Carino and Welebich. We will make sure our grandsons know how much you loved them. I personally witnessed the joy, happiness and most of all your friendship and loyalty to your family and friends. CHILI!! You will truly be missed! I always treasure our friendship and family.

“ “Bendición Tío” had better be the first thing that came out of my mouth when I saw him because if not it would be “y la bendición?” Over and over until I said along with a big hug and a kiss. I will always remember how willing to help he always was and better yet how willing he was to have some fun. I remember the first time I drove a manual car was with you and Papi. It was of course it was Tio Joel’s idea to do this and at night. The car of choice, his 2 seater RX7 and three of us but he decided that we would all get in the car so we did. Here there was a 14 year old driving a manual with the grown man sitting on each others laps. Still laugh to myself when I remember this and I’m so greatfull that I was able to have that time with you and that you were huge part of so many great experiences in my life. I will love you and miss you always, thank you for everything. See you later Tio, bendición.

“ Happy thanksgiving to my best friend my brother Jose Ubarri (welebich). Although your not here with us I know that you will enjoy of the feast that god has prepared for you this year. This has been a hard pill to swallow but I ask god to give everyone the strength to get past this difficult time. Jose I thank you for being at my everyday call and with no hesitation you were always there. I will miss everything about you. I know as you look down at us you will see how much we loved you as many didn't have the chance to say their final goodbye and truly express their feelings. You will be missed. Love Edwin V

He had told my mom that this year he wanted a “fancy” thanksgiving like you see in the movies, with the long table full of food surrounded by family.. I know he’s going to be enjoying that today with his heavenly family ☐

“SUEGRO!!! That was the name you gave me the privilege of calling you, and everyone knew it. I knew you long before I even knew who Jaileen was. I remember working on my '84 Corolla at the shop on 4th street. I would see you there, beer in hand, telling stories with your perfect on point sound effects and they would always end in a joke and you laughing making anyone around you laugh. You would talk to me in spanish...at the time I didn't know nothing. Probably could've called me a welebish and I would just smile not knowing what you were saying hahaha. I remember you would welcome me like “¿Que paso cariño?” or “ ¿Como estas Cariño? Well little did you know “Cariño” was trying to get to know Jaileen!!! Hahaha and at first he was hesitant, but he knew I came from a good home and I was raised well! So “Cariño” started washing his cars, having dinners at his house and dating his daughter, and calling him SUEGRO!!! Then Jaileen and I Promoted him to ABUELO in April 2017 with the birth of Michael!!! That's where he shined brightest, being abuelo. He loved my son so much and so well we gave him a second Grandson in 2018 named in his honor, Joel! In 2019 Michael gave him his iconic name of ABUELO-Welebish!!!

Suegro, so humble, so loyal, so genuine

*Te amo, I know you are at peace, I know your life wasn't the easiest. Thank you for accepting me, thank you for inspiring me, thank you for ALWAYS ALWAYS ALWAYS having my back. Your loyalty was unmatched and in your beautiful green eyes, I could do no wrong! Gracias por ser un Abuelo tan perfecto, Suegro!
You will be dearly missed*

“ My oldest brother Joel whom I used to sleep as a kid and would urinate all over (story he would always share about me 🤔) the sister he always felt tried to choke while feeding (in reality I had croup). My bully and jokes teacher, the master of positivism and optimism. Always finding the positive side of everything regardless of the situation. Smiling and cursing (in a jokingly manner) his favorite things to do on a daily to uplift anyone’s moods and help fixing bad days. He lived life the way he wanted (a su manera) regardless of what other thought was the “right way” (welebichos). I admire him for his traits: honesty, loyalty, kindness, caring, positivism, great attitude, desire to help others and the love he shared for his family and friends. His wife Milagros was his strength, his jokes partner at home to scare of and/or to make others laugh (specially Nany) and his confidant. His grandchildren were everything to him (he was training them 🤔), his children Joelito, Jaileen and Nany we’re everything to him and he moved here to Florida to ensure they were given the best he and his wife could offer. They succeeded because today they are amazing, successful and happy as he dreamed of. I want everyone to remember him the way he wanted to be remembered, joking, laughing and taking a beer on his name (Heineken was best).
Te amo por siempre Joel, como tú no hay y jamás habrá ❤️

“ My dad had this ongoing joke that one of my biggest pet peeve’s is that he could be in the middle of the desert looking for water and some guy would come up to him yelling “Chili” offering him water because somehow no matter where he was he would know at least one person in the room. As much as it annoyed me I always loved noticing how he made friends in every corner, He really was one of a kind. He’d always tell me how when I was a baby I’d stick my little hand out of the crib and hold his finger, so before he left me I made sure to hold his finger one last time to show him I’ll always be his little girl. I’ll miss you everyday pa, and I’ll make sure to tell everyone in your honor que así soy yo.

“ Getting to know Jose after all these years is something I would never forget. Each time we ran into one another at a family function he was always so positive. He always made sure we caught up and he always left me with some advice. How he always expressed his love for his family, grandchildren, and son Inlaw was so awesome to see and at times be apart of! This man will be missed and he will forever be in our hearts and prayers. Love you Jose!

“ I was honored to be able to call him my dad for the last 31 years. He was the most loyal person I’ve ever known. My dad will literally give you the shirt off his back if you needed to with no hesitation. I loved my dad and knew he was a great person but knowing him and seeing him as a grandfather was incredible to watch. He lived for his grand kids and loved to see them run around and ride their bikes. My dad will truly be missed by many. This has been and will be one of the hardest things that I will have to endure to not be able to call my dad tell him how me and the kids are doing and how much we love him. Papi te amo por siempre ❤️

“ I been working with this man for 12 years. We were inseparable we became friends, Best friends, and Brothers we’ve been through good and bad time together. It hurts to know that someone with such a good heart and someone so caring can be gone so fast. I know he’s in a better place now but my selfishness wants him here. God know what he does and why so I hope that all of us can continue on without his presence and his smile that we saw from him each and every day. He will be missed and never forgotten!!
