

Joseph Y. Desile

August 24, 1949 - June 9, 2025

Joseph Y. Desile was born on August 24, 1949, in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, to his devoted parents, Jean Baptiste and Clarizelle Ramos. He completed his high school education in Haiti and went on to learn the trade of auto mechanics, a skill he would master and carry with pride throughout his life.

One of Joseph's favorite stories to share was how he met the love of his life, Stephanie, at the airport—a meeting that marked the beginning of a lifelong journey together. From that day on, they were inseparable, sharing over 50 years of love, partnership, and unwavering commitment. Stephanie, who frequently traveled between Haiti and the United States, eventually made the decision to bring Joseph to the States so they could build a better life together.

Once in the U.S., Joseph enrolled in a technical school and earned his certification in auto mechanics. His passion and dedication led him to open his own business, Joe's Auto Shop, first in Pompano Beach and later relocating to Orlando, where he continued to serve his community with skill, integrity, and a warm smile.

Joseph was a devoted husband, a hardworking businessman, and above all, a proud father. He is preceded in death by his beloved son, Jackson Josaphat. He leaves behind 6 children and 14 cherished grandchildren

Joseph's legacy is one of love, strength, humility, and perseverance. He will be remembered not only for the life he built but for the lives he touched with his kindness and wisdom. He will be deeply missed and forever loved.
