“ I just want to say that Joe you were one of a kind. I will never forget many get together's at the lake, BBQ's etc. You were always full of life. Always smiling, joking, and having a good time. I won't forget you teaching me how to cook and prepare white rice with beans, as well as apple pies all from scratch. You had a passion for fun in life as well as cooking. You will greatly be missed and never be forgotten. You are in my thoughts and prayers. My condolences to the entire Gullo family. Rest in Peace Joe.

Sincerely
Joshua LeClair

“ *Joe,
I'll miss your great sense of humor, excellent cooking and all the fun times we shared when I was young. You always made a day at the lake or a BBQ a fun and memorable time. I will always keep the fond memories of you and your family close by. Thank you for being you and always putting a smile on us kids' faces. Rest in peace.

“ Joe,

You had a big heart and a big smile. You would give the shirt off your back even though you knew you could not afford too. I always admired that. I will always remember the good times that Ines and I shared with you and Nancy. Listening to Motown and singing the songs together. Also the wonderful dishes you prepared and the recipes that followed, that Ines still uses. The N.Y. strip steaks you made for us one Saturday were the best. I'm still sorry for spilling grease all over your floor. May you always have sunshine on a cloudy day even if it's not the month of May. Rest in Peace friend.

“ When you lived with us it was a gift. Everyday we made coffee and talked and we laughed. some of our our inside jokes you would tell me the bus ride story and mimic the ladies "alright alright alright"..lol I would laugh so hard. Somtimes you would leave it on my voice mail. You also did great dog barking impressions. You were the cutest man ever! when I first met you I knew you were Kim's dad. :) He has your humor and your cooking gene and so much more. When my neice came to visit us you took her out for some good spanish food and she painted you an Akita pup. You made such an impression on her. She loved you. She came to visit you in hospital in your last days. you were a jokster til the end. I miss those big plates of food you would make, you loved to feed people. sometimes you would leave things for us on our door extra bread just sweet jestures. Any time I saw you I would give you a big hug and if i did'nt you would let me know...lol I always had a smile for you and was happy to see you. I would give you a hard time if you were somtimes distance and made sure you knew we missed you. The last thing you said to me before you went into surgury was "hey could ya sneak me in a cappuccino?" I miss you so much Pappa Joe.

“ We said goodbye to a member of our family. Joseph Gullo SR. We will miss him dearly. His contagious laughter, sense of humor, his funny jokes, his awesome Spanish cooking, the way he danced with Nancy , the way he would knock on the door (you knew it was him) , his love for cheesy action movies we would download for him , I will miss his light and darkness. I know you were scared and didn't know how to show you cared sometimes. You are at peace now and your family , your grands and great grands will know who you were. You will always be Pappa Joe and I will always love you and miss you.

the song you loved for the kids :

“ I met Mr. Gullo 4 years ago at my office. He was the most exciting person to be around and speak to. He always made me smile regardless of how my day was going. I will truly miss him, he was a great guy. My condolences to his wife & family. Rest in peace Joseph. (I don't live in the ghetto...our inside joke)

“ I met Joseph when he came to the medical office where I work. Regardless how he felt he always had a smile for us and a kind word. It was a pleasure to help Joseph with anything he needed because he was sweet and appreciative. When he would come to our office he would bring music CD's personalized for each of us. I was so sad to hear of his passing. We see allot of people in our office but few have had the impact on us that Joseph had. He will be missed.

Rest in Peace Joseph.

“ My father was always cooking, that was what inspired me to go to culinary school and become a chef, sharing recipes and showing me to cook dishes he loved will be happy memories of him. He loved to joke even sometimes in inappropriate times, or maybe they were the right moments, humor can be used to cope with hard situations or sadness. Lets remember his funny side and i'm sure he is with us now making jokes about us. I love you daddy.

“ I can't stop thinking about all the good times we had in Meadowbrook. We shared so many laughs together. You were an amazing friend but then again you could be a big pain the butt but I loved you anyways. I know we lost touch with eachother for a while but you were always in my heart. I'm so glad we had the chance to reconnect after so long . You were taken so soon I just finally got my Joe back. I'm gonna miss getting you songs and playing name that tune. You had such a huge heart the love you had for Nancy was one of a kind your gonna be deeply missed.. I love you and I'll always be thinking of you til we meet again love always Linda Wheeler
