“ Rest in Peace, Joe. You were truly a good man, and getting to know you over these past several years was a privilege. We shared so many laughs, stories, and unforgettable memories that I will always cherish.

What saddens me most is that the man I came to know is far greater than what this obituary could ever capture. You deserved to be celebrated more fully while you were here - not just after you are gone.

You lived a long and fruitful life, but truthfully, it could have been so much more had you received the love, support, and presence from family that you so often longed for but rarely seemed to have. We spoke about it many times, so I know this is not speculation - it was your reality.

Despite that, you kept going, kept loving, kept showing up for others with humor and heart. That's the Joe I will remember.

Rest easy now.

*Your special friend,
Kim Williams*

“ To The Family the the Late Joe Kelly, especially daugther Kate, Barb) & Loved Ones,
Our sympathies to comfort you will not be enough these days. All we know is that Joe led a full life with you & friends as well.
But we are together in faith that Joe now is in that state with Karen meeting him that knows no bounds.
Rest now Joe in HIS Loving, Merciful & Peaceful arms -
Medy (& the late Larry Magilligan)
