“ Dear Family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one and send you my sincere condolences. The passing of a loved one can leave us feeling lost and heartbroken. But I've found very comforting words in God's word, the Bible. At Psalms 55:22, God promises to sustain those who throw their burden upon Him. God will also do away with death all together as brought out at Revelation 21:4. The bible also holds out the hope of a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death at Acts 24:15. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. Heartfelt prayers are with your family. “ Josh was our nephew. As a child he was like a ray of sunshine, such a wonderful smile. As a young adult he was still like the sun and the smile was the same. We loved him and are so sorry for the pain his family must be going through. We are secure in the fact that he is in the arms of our Lord, so we won't say goodbye, only see you later.

“ I played soccer with Shuler at C.E. Byrd High School. Not only was he an incredible athlete, I remembered him as being a great guy with a peaceful soul. My prayers are with Josh, his family and friends. Journey on, brotha.

“ I fell in love with Josh the first time I met him. He has just come back in town from working in Texas, rocking a Paul Bunion Halloween beard he walked into the bar and I heard that voice and that was it. We went to Citywalk and danced the night away. Started playing golf together and we were inseparable. I always remember laughing and dancing with him, it never mattered where or when with Josh; it was always about living life to the fullest. He loved his music, his golf, his fishing, and of course his LSU Tigers and Dallas Cowboys. Josh loved with every piece of himself. Anyone that knew him knows this. He was always looking after others and putting their needs before his own. I will remember him as the honest southern gentleman that he was. Joshua Davis Shuler you will always have a piece of my heart and I will always keep you alive in mine.

“ Josh was as close as a brother. Always knew how to make me laugh, was always generous with his time and talents, always willing to offer all he had if it would make you smile. He was always happy and upbeat, full of energy. The nights of him and Michael singing Pat green till 5am in the morning, the trips to the beach, cornball at Jays, his gentleness when he knew you were having a bad day and tell you the truth weather you liked it or not. He put his friends needs above his own, was quick to overlook an offensive, and patient enough to listen when you had a problem. He was smart and ambitious, loyal and fearless. He touched our lives with his kind and gentle heart. May we remember him and forgive ourselves for those of us who didn't tell him just how much his life impacted others. Let us not let this be in vain but remember to tell those friends and loves ones how much they mean to us. Josh will always be that special brother and friend of mine that no other could ever replace, I will miss him dearly and always regret not telling him sooner that no matter how much time went by without us seeing him, we loved him.

“ Josh is my cousin and we are 4 years apart. We grew up in a family where we were the only two boys around during the holidays and I had some of the most memorable times as a child playing "hallway soccer", exploring the woods, or having a M80/Bebe gun war (Sorry mom & Aunt ann) at out grandma's house in Minden, Louisiana. I looked up to him so much growing up and I'll continue to look up to him every day. Thank you for all the memories Josh.

“ Josh has always been there for me since we were young. He has given me the shirt off of his back on numerous occasions. Josh is the most genuine, caring, generous, and dependable friend I have ever had. Until we meet again, you will be missed brother!
