“ You were always so strong and willing to do whatever it took for your family. You fought the good fight Mom. Your loving children, caring grand-children and wonderful great grand-children are your legacy. You ran your race and you won it! Thank you for loving me. I also want to thank you one more time for saving me from choking. I am eternally grateful you were there with us that day! We will all miss you very, very much.

Love,

Your Son-in-Law

Richard

“ In thoughts of my dearest mother who gave me life..... You made me proud to call you "mom." So many happy memories we've shared together....My final memory of you laying next to me holding my hand until you let go and walked with Jesus.... 😊
