

Joycelyn Noreen Royer

August 19, 1952 - August 20, 2013

Joycelyn Noreen Barthley was born in Newfield, Antigua, West Indies on August 19, 1952 to Adolphus Barthley and Grettalin Brown Hector. She was the fourth daughter and middle child of eleven.

She attended Princess Margaret Secondary School and upon graduation attended the Holberton Hospital Nurses' Training Program. After completing her training, she worked at the hospital as a midwife until moving to Florida in 1982.

In 1984, she married Wilton Henry Royer. This union produced two amazing, lovely, fabulous, sassy daughters Onika Vanier Dawn and Caryn Leanne.

Over the last 31 years, Joycelyn worked in various health care settings - hospitals, nursing homes and finally, in private duty home healthcare. The great loves of her life were her daughters, her large family, and her patients. Outside of work, she loved volunteering (endlessly) for her daughters' activities, singing in the choir at St. Luke's, working with the Antigua and Barbuda Association of Central Florida, and greeting and keeping watch each Sunday from her bench outside the Sanctuary.

Joycelyn was preceded in death by her husband, Wilton. She leaves to mourn her passing her daughters Onika Williams (Fletcher) and Caryn; sisters Lydia

Galloway (Foster), Rhonis Barnard (Rupert), Pauline Phillips (Randall), Veda Sealey (Ivon); brothers Leopold Gomes, Earl Glanville (Debbie), Hollice Gomes (Cheryl); Grandson Kaleb Williams; and countless nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and patients.

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family. I knew Joycelyn from a bible study class and the choir. She was a sweet and bubbly lady and it was an honor to know her. I now live in Ocala but wanted to offer my sympathy.

Sincerely, Dottie Schweiger
