

Juanita A. Chastain

September 23, 1934 - November 24, 2014

Juanita A. Chastain, age 80, of Orlando, was called home to our Heavenly Father Monday, November 24, 2014 after a courageous battle with cancer. At the time of her passing she was at home surrounded by the love and prayers of her family.

Juanita was born September 23, 1934 in Conasauga, TN, daughter of the late Homer

Henry and Mamie (Chable) Henry.

Juanita moved from Tennessee to Orlando in 1954 where she was employed as a bookkeeper at South Orlando Bank. Juanita enjoyed a thirty year hobby of reselling apparel at her favorite local flea market, reading, and most of all, spending time with and cooking for her family. Even in her final moments, Juanita was always positive and never complained.

She was a beloved Wife, Mother, and Grandmother, she made everyone around her feel loved and welcomed by putting others needs first through her generous nature. She was a role model and an inspiration for both family and friends through her strong work ethics, tenacity, and her "can do" attitude.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her beloved husband; Viron Chastain, sons; Tony and Robert Chastain, daughters; Anna Chastain and Mary Lozano, granddaughters; Amanda and Ashley Craig, sister; Mary Sue Chastain, brothers; Weyman and Gene Henry.

While she is no longer physically with us she will be deeply missed and will remain in our minds and hearts forever.

In lieu of flowers the family graciously requests donations be made to St. Jude's Children Hospital, PO Box 1000, Dept. 142, Memphis, TN 38148 (Reference Tribute #37041958)

“ To my beautiful mother in heaven,

Since you departed, life has changed dramatically. 😭

I know you are at peace, but you are greatly missed!

I miss your smile, advice, humor, your wonderful meals, and most of all, your unconditional love!!

I know our entire family wishes you were here with us so that we could hug you tight and tell you thank you for always loving and guiding all of us!! You are always in our hearts.

I Love you and miss you (and Daddy) dearly!

Happy heavenly Mother's Day, Mom! 🌸💖✨

“ Hi Mama!

*It's been a while since I wrote to you but I think Of you everyday and miss you terribly! We have been living through a pandemic that's turned the world upside down and although I wish you were here, I'm glad you haven't had to go through this! On a brighter note I'm getting married January 29th to my best friend which you are the reason this happened! I will never forget on one of my last times going to Red Lobster with you on a Sunday. I was on speaker phone with Jason and we ended the call and you said..
(Anna why don't you just give him a chance y'all are crazy and just alike if it don't work y'all will be friends again some day!) Welp Mama we are still together and about to be married. You put him in my life for a reason and I know exactly what that reason was for.
You never steered me wrong in life so I Thank you! I'm super sad and emotional each day now because you won't be present physically but I know you will be there in spirit with my little Bella smiling away with joy! I love you and miss you much mama and my heart will never mend from loosing you! I hope you are resting peacefully until I see you again!

“ Dear Mom,

Happy Birthday to my beautiful Mother in heaven! <3

I miss you so much, my heart aches for you, miss talking to you, miss giving you hugs and telling you how much I love you!

We are all thinking of you today (and everyday) and all the amazing memories that we had together.

Some day, we will be able to celebrate your birthday together in heaven.

Have a wonderful birthday, Momma...

“ Hi Mama-

Happy Mother's Day in heaven my pretty lady! This year is no different from the rest many tears and emptiness as you are not here another year on your special day. I miss you more and more as times goes on and I'm not sure when or if my heart will ever mend back together from loosing you. There are times like right now that I need you so bad but I know you are watching over all of us and are here in spirit. I love you and miss you mama and can't wait to reunite and see you one day.

“ Dear Mama-
Another Birthday came and went and it never gets any easier.
Sunday was such a hard day for me considering what I'm going through right now personally. These are the times that I just want to pick up the phone and hear you say... Annie it's gonna be o.k! I feel More and more empty and lonely as the time continues to pass without you. I managed to cook one of your favorite meals as I've done on your birthday each year tears and all! I love you dearly and miss you each and everyday more and more. I'm sure you were laughing and having a good time up there on your special day, Loving you forever mama!

“ Dear Mom,

Not a day goes by that I don't think of you! Tomorrow we remember your 84th birthday.
I wish I could wake up in the morning and give you a big hug and kiss on your special day. However, I will have to settle for the beautiful memories I have in my mind and the love that I have for you in my heart. ❤️

Dad, Amanda, Ashley, Bob, and I, love and miss you and wish you a heavenly birthday!!!

I thank God that I was blessed to be your daughter.

Happy Birthday, Momma

“ Dearest Mom,

Lots of tears missing you today. Every day is difficult without you, but Mother's Day is always a day that stirs up the emotions even more because of your absence.

I try to find comfort in remembering the many sacrifices that you made for our family, and the unconditional love you gave so selflessly.

On this Mother's Day, while I don't have you physical with me, I will honor you with the love in my heart and the wonderful memories that are forever etched in my mind. I love you and miss you, my beautiful, sweet, and lovely Mother in heaven!

Just wanted to tell you how much I miss you and not a minute goes by without you being in my every thought. I'm trying to start 2016 off thinking of the wonderful memories I had with you for 39 years. Its so very hard because I wish you were still here so I could hear your voice, your laugh and smile. I know you are with me in spirit and always watching over me. Get ready for some good laughs at the end of this month. Watch me take to the SLOPES for my first time ever seeing snow and trying to Ski... I can hear you now telling Danielle and I "NOT TO BREAK OUR D&M" ARMS and LEGS up there in your country voice! HAHA! I remember you and Dad trying so hard when I was young to take me to Tennessee to see snow and it NEVER happened. You would get so mad. =) It's o.k. Though I am sad to see you go, I will hold cherish many fond memories we've shared in time. Lay to rest all feelings of pain and sorrow and depart your spirit to receive eternal peace.

“ We were so sorry to hear of your passing. Although it is good to know that your suffering is over. We are so happy that we got to be with you during your last days so we could tell you how much we loved you. You have always been a wonderful sister and sister-in-law. I remember when you were in my room at school for a short time in the fifth grade. You were a smart little girl. I never thought you would someday be my sister-in-law. Juanita, I'm sorry I pestered you so much with your cats. Brothers are good at aggravating their sisters, yet, we all loved you so much. Hope you are happy now and we will be seeing you before long.

“ To My Beloved Wife,

I am so grateful to have been married to you for the past 60 years. I have many fond memories of our times together whether we were on vacation or sitting at home. I wish I could go back in time and spend more time with you. I miss you being near me everyday. I think of you everyday. I would give anything in the world to have you back. If the good lords willing I'll see you heaven. I love you so much. God Bless You!

“ Mrs. Chastain,
I'm sad to learn of your passing after your courageous battle with cancer. I now rejoice as you will now be t God's side and will never suffer again and will be rewarded for being the great person you were while here on earth. I will always cherish seeing you in Publix when I was at the Orange and Michigan store and getting the updates on the family and with what Tony was doing and has done, as we were always amazed at what fishing trip, lobster diving trip, or hunting excursion he was upto. I know that you have touched many lives as you have touched mine. Sunday morning breakfasts might be replaced but will never be duplicated like you could whip up. May God now bless your family and help them through this must difficult time.

“ Mama.. Happy Thanksgiving! I can't believe you are not here today. I'm so sad and empty because we would have been up cooking together super early. I know you are happy because it's the first year in many "YOU CAN REST" and not do a darn thing. I was so looking forward to another lesson on your pecan pies though because I don't think I got it down quite yet. Well, just wanted to tell you again I love you to the moon and back my "Pretty Lady" and I miss you like you'll never know!

“ My Mom,

Your pain and suffering is over now, and ours begins. The emptiness I feel, knowing that I can't call you, or sit down and have an early morning cup of coffee with you, makes my heart ache so much.. I can only hope the strength and courage you showed, will be passed on to our family.. I am a part of you, will always be thinking of you, and love you... Rest peacefully Mom, and I'll see you in the heavens soon!! "Your Eldest" Tony

“ Dear Juanita,

My heart is broken for your family but it is rejoicing for you! You have left a memory and legacy of love, strength and goodness that can't be dimmed by the mere mortal passing from this physical experience to one more exalted. I rejoice that those who have gone on before you have the joy of you joining them in His Kingdom. Wherever you go Love is there.

I have many memories of sharing fun times with your family. Who could ever forget your sense of humor and ready smile and laugh? Your culinary skills are legend! Southern banana pudding, fresh creamed corn... I could go on!

You are alive in the memory of your family, friends, and all who knew you. You will ever bless us with your loving example of motherhood, wife, and friend. What a beautiful reflection of God - made "in His image after His Likeness." That is your true being and it is vibrant and going on doing good!

With dearest love and admiration,

“ Juanita was easily the most loving person I ever met. She truly cared about all of Anna's friends. She had the sweetest smile that welcomed everyone in. I will truly miss her quick wit and her amazing sense of humor. I am heartbroken thinking about how much her families going to miss her. But I know they find comfort in knowing she is no longer suffering. You are all in my prayers and her impeccable strength lives on and all of you.

“ My Mother my Angel,

*When God took you home my heart broke.
The very creation of our strength and compassion went also. I grieve for you every minute of each day. Because of your strength you fought this terrible disease with dignity and without complaint.*

Know that we can only survive this because of the strength and upbringing you instilled in each of us.

Your pain and suffering is now over. You can now breath the clean air in heaven and rest without interruption. God will show you the way.

I love you Mom. See you at Heaven's gate.

“ To My Dearest Mom,

The loneliness and the heartache I feel are beyond belief. I miss you so much. For as long as I can remember, you have been such a strong woman. However, watching you fight this illness until your very last breath takes the meaning of “strong” to a different level.

I feel as if a part of me went with you and life will never be the same without you. I ask myself; how will I get through this unbearable grief. I tell myself one day at a time, reflecting on the life lessons you have instilled in me, along with the courage and strength that you have given me. I pray that these things will bring me comfort in the days ahead.

I know you are the brightest star in the sky at night, a beautiful angel watching over us, pain free and in peace with our Heavenly Father. Your legacy lives inside of me, and our cherished memories will remain in my mind and heart forever.

Until we meet again, I love you Momma!

*You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of memories you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn back.
Or you can do what she'd wanted:*

smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

“ To my beloved Mamaw,

You were the strongest women I ever knew, and my second mom. I hate that you were diagnosed with such a horrible disease that you did not deserve.

You were courageous, kind, loving and always put others before yourself. You have taught me that with strength you can survive anything.

I will miss the moments we shared talking and giggling with each other, watching soap operas, and most of all your cooking. I know the memories we have together will get me through this time of sorrow, and now know you will be watching over me as my guardian angel to help get me through this difficult time. May you finally rest in peace, which you so deserve with our Heavenly Father.

You will forever be my hero and the best grandma I could have ever asked for.

Until we meet again! Love you so much! Xo

“ You were one of the most strongest women I had met. You never gave up and you fought so hard. You looked so good that I always told your girls I couldn't believe that your were 80! No wrinkles ! You were the coolest! The few times that I would come and visit you or give you a little trim you always made me feel like home. I respected the mother that you are. I love you. We will see each other again. Rest now with our Father. <3

“ My Mamaw,

You were the best grandma anyone could ever ask for. I find myself extremely lucky to have so many great childhood memories that I will never forget...our weekly trips to Target and Goodwill, pretending to be sick at school and call for you to come and pick me up in that big red truck and then take me to McDonalds for a happy meal :) Riding to garage sales and looking for antiques, watching you arrange the most beautiful flower arrangements and then riding to Webster and hang out with you and papaw all day! I will also never forget that no matter where we went in all of my memories, you had befriended every single person. You treated every person the same no matter what and taught our family that we are all equal. All of these memories I will cherish forever.

Words cannot express how much I am going to miss you. You are forever in my heart and I hope that you watch over me until we meet again. Even though I am heartbroken you are not physically here with me, I know you are not in pain or suffering anymore! I love you SO much and your spirit will forever be with me. 💕

I hope you are in heaven looking down on us in a comfortable recliner chair with Kobe sitting on your lap while watching General Hospital:):):)

May you rest in peace my Mamaw 💕

“ Mamaw,

I never viewed you as a mother-in-law but rather as my other mother. You were easy to love and I will miss you dearly. My heart broke to see your condition deteriorate and regrettably, to see you confined as I know how difficult that must have been for you although you never complained. I now find emotional relief in knowing that you are in a better place and no longer suffering.

Until we meet again you will remain in my mind and heart forever.

I love you and God bless you!
