March 9, 1934 - June 5, 2013

Juanito was born in Utuado, Puerto Rico to Jose Ramos and Adela Aviles on March 9, 1934 and moved to New Jersey at the age of 20 years old. He retired from Gemini Industries in Passaic where he worked for 20 years as a Machinist.

“Hey grandpa...I wish I could of been there to see you one last time...I wanted to tell you that in my eyes you've always been my grandfather...me and my mom were talkin the other day about you and all the good memories we had and one of them which wasn't funny at the time was about me when I was a little kid and how I messed up your sofa...lol hope you forgive me by now lol...back in the day it was the best when the family would get together every Sunday to go see you and grandma..me and you used to always watch wrestling together when I would stay over....you used to always convince grandma to let me stay up and watch it ...I remember how happy you used to be just from me giving you a haircut back in 2004 when I went to stay with you and grandma to finish my senior year...I thank you for taking me in because you and grandma gave me the opportunity to finish highschool the right way...you'll always be in my heart ! I hope you know that I especially loved you for being by my grandmothers side all these years through thick and thin...you were a true husband to her.... ill see you again someday grandpa...you were strong and you fought for as long as you could...may God bless you and accept you through the gates of heaven...I love you grandpa! No more pain!

“ You came into my life as a young teen and now I am 49. So many years, so many memories and events you shared in my life. You sat with me many times and gave me great advice, advice I will never, ever forget that helped me and I will always carry with me. Anytime I became sick and needed to be taken to the hospital, you were there. Anytime my car broke down, you were there. You were there when each of my children were born and you shared in their life as they grew up as well. You were not my stepdad, you were the only real dad I have had throughout my life. For that, and for so many other things, I thank you. I love you. I respect you. I will miss you every day that goes by and especially when I go visit mom and see her other half isn't there. I know you are with our Savior, and I know you are at peace, no pain, no suffering, no discomfort of any kind. That gives me some measure of comfort, as I go day to day trying to be strong for mom and carry out the rest of my life. Please watch over us, guide us in the way Angels know how. I know you are smiling now. I will end this with your two favorite phrases, "Happy New Year and Ruff Ruff." Until we meet again Dad, I love you.

“ As I sit here, I want you to know, how very much I'd like to talk and see you today. There are so many things that we didn't get to say. I know how much you loved me and know that I loved you too. On Wednesday, June 5, 2013, an angel came and took you by the hand and said your place in Heaven was ready. You had to leave behind all those you dearly loved. You had so much to live for, you had so much left to do. It still seems surreal that God has taking you. Although your life on earth has past, in Heaven it starts anew. You'll live for all eternity, just as God has promised you, and though you've walked through Heaven's door, we are never far apart, because every time I think of you, you're right here, deep with-in my heart. I miss you Juan, I miss hearing you say, (as I come to visit you and mom) "Marinet, como estas mama, Happy New year!" lol... Sitting at the kitchen table will never be the same. You used to always sit across from me and always wore a smile on your face. R.I.P Juan, for I will truly miss you.

“ My name is Maritza I am the step daughter of Juanito. I want to thank you for being there when I needed you, you were there for my girls and loved them as your own granddaughter's. and also you took good care of the person i love, my mom. You kept a promise that you would respect her always till you die. And for that all my love. I don't say "Good bye" because I will see you someday.. I see you laughing from up above looking down on us from Heaven. And I'll remember you saying "Happy New Year"as a welcome. God bless your soul.
