J)

this was the actual last time I saw my mother I was crushed and on my way back to Texas I cried and cried even now after a little more than 2 years have past I still cannot get over the fact my mother is truly gone, so much has happened ever since so many people have changed I thought for the better but seems even after her depart things will never be the same . But I will always think of her every single day Until her and I meet ..

I love you MOM.. JUNITO

“ The first time I checked her in at the clinic and she kepted telling me your eyes are as beautiful as mine we laughed so hard. Then every visit from there was a great. She would complain about everyone there then turn around hung me and say you are my favorite don't ever leave here and if you do you better tell me. Rip mi viejita con los ojos bellos.
