

Kalin De'Anthony Clark

December 3, 1991 - June 19, 2014

Celebrating the life of Kalin De'Anthony Clark, "Monkey Man"

Kalin De'Anthony Clark was born December 3, 1991 in Orlando, Florida to Anthony Jones and the late Clara Nikki Clark. He attended the public schools of Orange County, Florida. He loved playing video games, fishing, listening to music, and pursuing his dream of becoming a Muslim. He also loved his sports, he's a Knicks fan.

He's preceded in death by his mother, Clara Nikki Clark and his grandmother Ora Miller Clark.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A loving sister Cahandra Clark, one brother Frederick Bagley, grandmother Mrs. Ivory Jones, father Anthony Jones of Louisiana, four aunts; Henrietta Sealey, Ruby Clark, Betty Jean Clark, and Vessie Lee Clark, all of Orlando. Uncle Roger Clark of Orlando, two devoted cousins Eric Rhymes Jr and Corey Brown, a very special friend Mohamed Alsayed, and a host of cousins and friends.

A repast will be held following the service at 724 W. Miller St. Orlando, FL 32805

“ To the family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss. God provides comfort in these difficult times through promises of hope for the future. A resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs, John 5:28,29, A time when no resident will say “I am sick”... Isaiah 33:24, and Rev 21:4 promises that mourning, pain, and even death will be no more. For now, hold on to your precious memories and may God bless all of you with peace.

“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
