

Karen Lee Davis

December 8, 1956 - December 3, 2014

Karen Lee Davis, age 57, passed away at the VITAS Inpatient Hospice Unit in Winter Garden, Florida on Wednesday, December 3, 2014. Her eldest son and daughter were by her side at the time of her passing.

Born December 8, 1956, in Worcester, Massachusetts, she lived in Rhode Island, Virginia, Georgia, Kansas and New Jersey, before settling in the Orlando area in 1993. Until recently she worked in retail after many years of being a homemaker while her two sons were growing up. Karen was always known to have a book in her hand. In particular, she truly enjoyed a good science fiction or horror novel.

Survivors include her son Benjamin Davis, 32, his wife Kimberley and their son Colin of Baltimore, MD; her son Christopher Davis, 29, of St. Petersburg, FL; her daughter Alexis Young, 15, of Sanford, FL; and her brother Donald Simmons of East Douglas, MA. She is predeceased by her parents, Donald and Grace Simmons, and her sister Brenda Grenier.

Memorial service details will be announced at a future date. Memorial donations can be made to the Alexis Young College Fund. Made payable to: Edward Jones, 3001 East Main Rd, Portsmouth, RI 02871
