“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.

“ Karen and I met at church when we were both around 15. After losing touch during our child rearing years, we reconnected again as grandmothers. Karen was such a sweet, friendly person and she really loved her children and grandchildren. My heart goes out to her son and daughter and their families as they grieve the loss of their mother and grandmother. I pray that God will put his loving arms around them and give them comfort and peace during this time of sorrow, knowing that one day they will be reunited. Geneen Pickerill

“ Karen was a childhood friend , we grew up in the church together. She was one of the kindest people I ever knew .She loved her family so much. We talked about our children ,our Moms who were great friends, then our grandchildren. My love goes out to her family and the wonderful assurance that we will all see her again when life here on earth is over for all of us .

“ May you find comfort in the fond memories of her and may God give you all the strength to endure this time of sorrow. Remember and rejoice in God's promises in the scriptures to obedient mankind who have fallen asleep in death at Acts 24:15, there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. In addition, very soon pain, sickness, and death will be no more as mentioned in Revelation 21:1-5. My sincere condolences to the family.

“ A LIMB HAS FALLEN

*A limb has fallen from the family tree,
I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
The good life lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you,
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest,
Remembering all, now I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small,
Go on with your life, don't just stare at the wall.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin,
Until the day comes we're together again. Prayers and Sympathy to the Family. Angels will lift you to Heavens Door.*
