

Kathrine Rene Adams Townsend "Kathy"

August 5, 1976 - April 11, 2013

Kathy was the best MOM in the world. She had a kind, sweet, gentle, sincere soul and loved everyone deeply. If you ever had the chance to spend a moment with her it was enough to last a life time and leave a mark upon your heart. Her laughter was infectious and her smile contagious, so much so you could not help but share in her humor. She loved getting together with her family as often as possible. Her favorite pastime was taking the kids to the beach as she loved the ocean. She embraced her SUN GODDESS extraordinaire, always working on her tan. Her simple pleasures were reading, baking, cracking up on Facebook with her friends, watching movies, listening to 80's music, and hanging out with her children. In her eyes, her children were her greatest accomplishments in life and nothing else could compare! Her favorite poem was "Footprints in the Sand" it is a beautiful poem about Faith and Perseverance, all of which Kathy embodied.

Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream--I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord and across the sky flashed scenes from my life.

For each scene I noticed two sets of footprints, one belonged to me and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of my life flashed before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that many times along the path of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in my life. This really bothered me and I questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way, but I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. "I don't understand why in times when I needed you most, you should leave me." The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never, never leave you during your times of trial and suffering. "When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

In lieu of flowers the family graciously requests that donations be made to the 1st Southern Bank for her daughter Emma.

“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Though I stopped being a religious person a couple of decades ago, I have found myself quietly praying for Emma and for all of Kathys family every day.

I hope the love that surrounds Emma will help soothe her pain and somehow, soften the blow of the huge loss she has just endured and suffered.

This tragic event has been a wakeup call and a reminder that our lives can change in one single solitary second, for the better or for the worse.

“ God opened His gates and received two new precious angels. I know you are with J.T. and you are both in a better place, but it does not seem fair and my heart is broken. Kathy, you were a very special woman, an amazing mother and the best cousin anyone could have asked for! I will miss you and J.T. everyday, you will never be forgotten and you will forever live on through your precious Emma. I will cherish every memory we have shared, especially our last laughs! Letting go is so hard, but you will both forever be in my heart. All my love.

“ Words cannot describe how you have touched all our lives. You were always there for everyone no matter what time of day. You were the true meaning of a friend that I looked at you like my sister. Taken too soon from this world, but know you are safe with God and JT. Just know Kathy we love and miss you.

“ Lovely, sweet young woman
Daughter and mother
Makes no sense to me...
...She flew up to Heaven on the wings of angels
By the clouds and stars and passed where no one sees
And she walks with Jesus and her loved ones waiting

“ When I look at Kathy's photo my heart breaks. I can't believe she's gone. What a sweet, sweet person. Although we just joked around I always looked forward to seeing her. Many times it was the highlight of my day. Her brown eyes were knowing and kind. I'll never forget her.
