

Katie Rita Corona

August 17, 1958 - June 9, 2019

Katie Rita Corona, devoted wife and mother, passed away at the age of 60 in Orlando, Florida on Sunday, June 9, 2019. She was born in Chicago, Illinois on August 17, 1958. She then met her then future husband, Cesar E. Corona in Oaxaca, Mexico before settling down in Orlando, FL.

Katie was a very knowledgeable, kind and caring person who always knew exactly what to say (usually prefaced with "The thing of it is") and do, when it came to comforting people. Katie believed in God's love and she showed it daily in her life. She was happiest when she could make a difference and help others.

Katie was a Trainer at Orlando Health, was there for over 20 years, and was one of the few people that could say, she truly enjoyed her work. Katie also loved Motown music, reading books, going to the beach and going on cruises with her husband and family.

She is survived by the love of her life and husband, Cesar E. Corona; her son, Jonathan A. Corona and his wife, Juana M. Corona; her brothers Victor Marcial and Raymond Marcial, her sisters Christie Spearman and Rosalie Mendez, as well as her cousins, nieces and nephews and friends.

Katie made an impact on so many lives and was loved by all who knew her; she had a way of making sure that her friends and family knew they were special to her. Katie will be sorely missed.

“ I met Mrs. Corona only once, at the wedding of Jonathan’s brother-in-law. She was so warm and gracious, welcoming me as though I were part of the extended family which compromised pretty much the entire rest of the guest list. It is s easy to understand how her loss can touch her loving family as deeply as it clearly does. I hope all can feel the love and support which is being sent to them today through sharing in the spirit of loss of Mrs. corona.

“ I worked very closely with Katie the last 10 years or so & she was a great friend. I can still hear her call me 'sweetie' as she began to give me her wonderful advice. She spoke to me often about her loving & thoughtful husband & how proud she was of her son. I I was lucky to talk to her shortly before her surgery but sad i missed her when she stopped to see me before the surgery. I so wish we had connected. I have been in such shock this week & am so sorry for her family because she is a big loss.

“ I miss you Katie, you are the best mom (in-law) I could have hoped for. I am so fortunate that I got to know and love you and am so lucky to have spent time with you. We are all devastated by your sudden departure, but the love you showed others is returning 10-fold to us. You had simple faith and gave so much to others, to us, and I only hope to be like you. I love you and will carry you and the memories we made in my heart forever.

“ I am truly blessed that I ran into Caesar and Katie last month before leaving Central Florida. God made us cross paths again so that I could see her loving husband Caesar & my friend's smile once more.

Katie was always a dear co-worker and friend to me. She was there for me through thick & thin and she always had the right words or verse to say. She is the only friend that ever volunteered to teach my husband & I the cha cha. Wow, I think we laughed more than we actually danced that night. Katie sure had the moves, but we were so BAD!

It's now a bittersweet goodbye my friend. I will miss you and our memories will always be remembered.

My thoughts and prayers go out to her whole family. I hope God provides Caesar & Jonathan comfort and peace during this difficult time. Please hang onto all the beautiful moments you've created together. God bless.

Love, Marlen

“ Katie Corona never hesitated to ask how I or my family were doing. This was such a special gesture from her, because she knew I had begun my journey as a newly wed. Katie didn't ask as part of her general greeting, she asked because she cared about my new life and my new family. She always ended with, "well it was great seeing you, you take care okay." I feel fortunate that I met someone as considerate and kind as her. She truly cared for others and she will be missed.
