“ Damn lil cuz, I still can't believe it.... I'm so sorry that I didn't get the pleasure to get to know you as the beautiful woman you grew to be, but I'm at so lucky to be honored with our childhood memories...I still remember when Titi and tío used to bring you to our house on 15th and lapham. I used to call you my Chucky doll, because Everytime you ran around our house when we played tag you reminded me of that lil Chucky doll lol....I still remember your laugh, your smile, how tiny you were, I carried you everywhere around the house....I remember when me and my sister would play house, you were basically our live doll.... You were the best babydoll any girl could wish for.... Thank you for giving me those memories I will forever cherish, I miss you so much.... “ Words alone cannot express how much you'll be missed. You always had a sense of humor and there was never a dull day with you in class. I'm so honored that you were my student and was happy to see you graduate from the pharmacy technician program at Florida Career College. You always talked about your children being the reason you never gave up; I pray God continues to watch over them and that they know and feel your love.

My sincerest condolences to your entire family and those that know you and will miss you.

Love,
Mrs. Z Redding (Pharmacy Teacher)

“ I remember spending time at Grandma and Grandpa's house with you, just playing running around the house and Grandpa would tell you come sit so we can watch Judge Judy, and you'd say in your little voice I don't wanna see Judge Judy. I remember doing your hair as adults, all different colors and styles! The last outing we had together was at the Travis Scott concert. The last vision I have is of you at Titi Kelly's and Pito's house smiling with those dimples as Marques leaned in to say hi and give you a kiss. I love you boo and miss you tremendously. My heart is broken. But I know you're in a better place!

“ I'm glad I got to say goodbye. I'm glad I got to hold your hand one last time. The best memory I have of Kayshla was when she flew to Milwaukee and she and the babies stayed at my house. I am glad Lily trusted me at very young age to babysit you and at an older age to send you to visit us. Our Holton street walks, I'll never forget. Love you baby girl. Missed, but never forgotten.

“ I remember Kayshla because I always stayed at house when visited and cause once upon time I lived with them and kayshla always confided in me we would sit up late nights in poinciana talking for hours but I know that she had a time she was just not happy so on her bday I said baby girl I have a friend that’s a make up artist and we going have your makeup done for your bday we bought alcohol she was throwing a little hotel party she was so happy and said Vic thank you. You know even when I took her out my friend glen and I took her out she loved being with me if I take her and Il miss our conversations and always even now if something bothered her she still call get my advice. I love you Kay you will be missed never forgotten. Rest in heaven spread your wings angel.

“ I remember Kayshla being with us all the time. When I got married, she's the one that kept me company while Pito worked nights. She was with me all the time. When Pito and I moved to Florida, she picked our house when she saw the pool.

This was my first year away from family during Easter since I was in Boston getting medical care for Sasha. At 9:25am that Sunday I had a Happy Easter text from Kayshla. On Mother's Day at 9:14am another text and we told each other, "I love you." I'd get random videos of Serenity in dance class or Sincere and Serenity giving her kisses. (You don't know how much I will miss you baby girl.)

(The last day I saw that pretty dimple was at home on the Sunday before Memorial Day. That was the last day I got a kiss from you, my dear niece, and it will be imprinted in my heart forever. I LOVE YOU. Que Dios te tenga en SU gloria.)

Kayshla, I am heartbroken that you are leaving us so soon. You were part of my life since you entered this world. I remember you as a little girl wanting to come across the street to play with Katarina and my dad would help you get across the street. I've witnessed you grow up into a smart, loving and determined young woman who always stood up for those who couldn't and for what you believed in. I've witnessed you become a loving mother to your babies who will only know you now through a video or a memory. We will always remind them of how much you love them. You will now be guiding them from above as their guardian angel. You are loved and cherished by all who had the opportunity to know you. You will be missed! Love you baby! ❤️

Kayshla, I still can't believe that you have gone with our creator so soon .I just wish you are in peace and that you watch over those two little kids from above. I don't think I ever said it to you but thank you for making us pick the house that we have is not biggest or the prettiest but is just right you knew it before we did and we have the greatest memories with the whole family in that house for that I thank you.I will miss you but I will not cry because I don't think you would like that and you would say something crazy to me. We will Love you for ever and You will be remember in our hearts. Tu Tío Pitó
