“ Kelly was a neighbor and our kids grew up together. We had fun at Neighborhood functions like the chili cook-off and bunco. I will always picture Kelly with a smile on her face because I truly don't remember a time when she wasn't smiling. She was a great mom and wife and a friend to everyone. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone and that speaks to what a truly good person she was. My prayers go out to her family. May she rest in peace. 🙏

“ Kelly is my cousin. I am blessed to have the same blood run through my veins. Her community is blessed to have her in their lives. Reading the comments and words posted, Kelly was blessed to have all of you in her life. She has a fantastic and loving family. My heart aches and words can not express my feelings. The community, I am thankful that you are who you are, to be there to surround Kelly's family with your warmth and kindness. May there be many blessings returned.

“ To Hal, Kat and Tyson, Jordan and Jesse, and Lauren: Words cannot express our heartfelt sorrow to you for your tremendous loss. As everyone has been saying, Kelly's smile and laughter was so contagious! She blessed all of us beyond compare with her zest for life and with the love of her family and friends. She was a dedicated servant to Jesus Christ, her Lord and Savior. Kelly was an asset to society and to the community in which she lived. May all of your happiest memories with Kelly help to sustain you during your times of deep sadness. May all of the stories of how happy she made so many people help comfort you when you miss her the most. Remember you are loved and we are here, any time at all, to assist you with what every you need. God Bless you all.

“ Kelly & Hal were the first couple my husband introduced me to even before we married and my kids and I moved to Orlando. By the time we finished dinner that night I told my husband that Kelly was going to be my best friend! I knew instantly that she was the kind of person I wanted to call my friend!

Our families have so many amazing memories that we share. Our Thanksgiving camping trip to the "Billboard Ocean" is just one of them.

My heart is heavy, but my memories still make me smile. We will hold on to those memories until we see her again.

Heaven will not be the same now that Kelly is there. I know she's surrounded by loved ones and that our Lord welcomed her home with open arms.

I love you Kelly. Don't worry about your family. Your friends and family will be there for them and God's amazing grace and love will carry them through their grief and show them the path toward the sunlight that's at the end of this journey.

Rest easy dear friend! I love you!

“ Thought I'd share what I posted on FB after finding out about Kelly getting to go be with Jesus:

"Just found out about losing a dear friend today. When I shared in shock with the friend I was having dinner with about her death, she asked me what I loved about her? My immediate response was her laugh! And how she would tell a story with huge eyes and that look of shock and THEN she would laugh her wonderful laugh and explain the story. #loss #gain #sheswithJesus #IwillseeyouagainKelly"

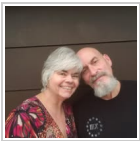

Already miss you oodles...but I will get to hear that laugh again! =D

“ I will never forget that smile of hers! Every time I think of her, that smile is what comes to mind. What a warm hearted person she was, and if we could all leave this world with people remembering us through our smiles, we would be so lucky.
God Bless Her. Our hearts are with all the family.

“ My deepest condolences to you at this difficult time. Every conversation I ever had with Kelly included chatting about her family ~ she adored you all immeasurably . Kelly's fantastic laughter & shining light will be missed but never forgotten. Godspeed to a beautiful, faithful, fun~loving lady, devoted to her family and loved by many. Her love for the Lord was the bright + shining light that beamed out to others. I know that heaven shines brighter than ever and for all of us who can carry her light in our hearts it will shine here for her too. I love you Kelly.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven. Matthew 5 : 16

“ So many years have passed since I have seen Kelly. She was a beautiful person inside and out. Hal she loved you will all her heart and soul. Kathleen "Punky" when you were born she knew that being your Mom was what the good Lord had intended her most important job in life was to be, she raised all of her children to be the best people they could be and she was successful. God bless you all. Neal and I are praying for you and love you.

“ Im very sorry for the death of your loved one I would like to share with you a text of the Bible found in John 5: 28,29 where Jehovah God promises that we will see our loved ones who have died for they will be resurrected. A beautiful promise for those of us who have lost relatives in death. I hope the text helps them and accompany them in their pain.
