“ I miss you hunny. I love you with all my heart. I still can't believe you're gone. It's going to take time to adjust to living without you. I miss you so much, your voice, your laugh, your kisses, hugs and love. My movie buddy, my best friend. We've seen just about every movie together. We had awesome times together. I know you are in the Presence of God and happier than ever. But, we are going to miss you so much. Watching our little boy grow up without you tears me to pieces. You left too soon. But, as you know God is a Good, Good Father and He will get us through this tough time. We will forever love you and remember you. See you when I get there hunny.

“ So many things to say; where to even start... I know we weren't close. But I got to tell you, it's hitting so hard. I find myself thinking of your bright spirit, your big heart and I although you are in a much better place; it still feels surreal. Kelvis, all love you so much! It's difficult for me to find the words, but God has found them in all of our hearts and I know that you know this. Your friends and family will ALWAYS, ALWAYS love you and we are finding ways to honor you. You gave so many people hope that they could be just as great. But you had "it". That invisible ray of light, that just shines because it's radiant and people could just feel it. My cousin's 15th birthday is one I'll never forget. Walking down the aisle with you as my partner and you trying to bust the Bboy moves is a memory I hold so dearly, because I got to see you sparkle. Thank you for touching all of us and we all know you are in peace doing them baby mills up in the sky. True to your nature ❤️ Rest in power brother. You deserve to see and be all that is beautiful. And that's what will remain with your friends, family and loved ones ❤️ We are so blessed to have gotten the chance to know you in this lifetime! We love you ❤️ #restinpower

“ Kelvis, where do I begin.. you were a tremendous impact on my life, one of my 1st true friends when moving to FL. introduced to you by Ryan you were spoken of as a urban legend a bboy that had that "it" factor. Our introduction was hilarious and is burned into my memory banks along with a lot of other memories all of them having the same tone of joy and happiness. We shed blood and sweat and tears training for hours and hours on end trying to perfect our craft, and the tears that were shed were that of over abundant laughter. From sneaking into Planet Fitness' dance room to countless racquetball courts just to train, to competing in competitions all over the state and countless battles.. We started a crew together a crew that gave me a camaraderie I had never felt before, you helped give me a family of brothers I never had and still have to this day. A crew name that you picked, a crew that eventually would help me be recognized on other sides of the country many times for an art form that we both loved and cherished, even the nickname I earned (Primo) and have tattooed on my body was built off an inside joke between us. I'll never forget going to your house and having to download breakdance clips (pre-youtube lol) and trying to build off ideas and arguing who won and who didn't and why. Kelvis I love you bro and you will forever be missed by your friends and family that you apart of and most definitely by the family you helped create. Whenever I dance it will be to honor your memory, Thank you for being who you were Rest in Power Kelvito

“Kelvis, I truly do not know where to even begin, I was in shock when I found out and at a loss for words, my heart was heavy and I could not believe what I was hearing. It feels like just yesterday we were all running around Waterford and having fun with no worries and living life as kids. You were break-dancing and practicing those windmills over and over. We would all laugh at you for doing something goofy and just shaking it off like nothing. You were always optimistic and smiled like there was no tomorrow. You were charismatic and were strong, freak of nature strong. I always knew that if I needed a friend or anything you would be there. It was always a group of us, Tommy, Elvin, Alvin, Vinny, Mickey, Anthony, myself i mean the list goes on and on.... you have a lot of people who love you bro and appreciate you. You are an amazing father, brother and overall amazing friend. You always saw the positive in all the negatives no matter the situation. Fast forward a few years then it us three over dinner and we are talking about our children and how becoming parents has been the best thing to ever happen to us, our small blessing. Our memories and crazy things we did among ourselves is something that will forever live on in our memories. I love you bro, we lost a friend but heaven gained an amazing angel. Rest in peace kelvis

“ This is truly very sad news to hear. Although, you passed away it still feels like yesterday that me, you, Elvin, Alvin, Tommy, Mickey, Anthony, Luis, Larry are still all growing up together as a family. Crazy how me and Larry were just talking about you on the phone the other day and he told me how good you were doing and that you had a little man of your own too. I can only imagine how much of a loss this is to not only to your family but your wife and kid too. Writing this now I have memories running through my head of being at your house, watching you breakdance and even you always going to get that strawberry smoothie from the coffee shop when the crew use to go watch movies on Friday nights. Like everyone is saying you are in a better place now but I know you will continue to be a guiding light not only for your family but for little man too. God Bless you Kelvis.

“ Querida Mildred y Familia;
La pérdida de un hijo es algo que nadie tendría por qué pasar. Por las diferentes circunstancias de la vida, el Señor les ha puesto el reto de pasar por esto. Que el Santo Manto de Nuestro Creador los Cubra y les de Consuelo. Los acompaño en su dolor y quiero que sepan que cuentan conmigo y toda mi familia para lo que sea que precisen RIP “ Estimada familia Rosario lamento mucho por la situación que están pasando pero me gustaría compartir con ustedes unas palabras de aliento que se encuentran en el libro mas sagrado, la biblia, en ( Hechos 24:15)allí dice: " tenemos esperanza... de que va a ver resurrección así de justo como de injusto". Entonces vemos que en su infinito amor por nosotros Jehová Dios nos promete devolverle la vida a nuestros seres queridos que han muerto. Espero que estas palabras les sirvan de consuelo.

Acompañándolos en su dolor.

“ Se me ha ido parte de mi corazón al cielo . Es muy triste y difícil aceptar que ya no estará con nosotros. Tengo la certeza de que esta en un mejor lugar, esta en los brazos de nuestro creador. Se que esta feliz y que ya no sufrirá más. Se que algún día lo abrazare de nuevo . Mi hijo Kelvis Antonio Rosario Soto esta en la presencia de Jehová nuestro Dios.
