“ When Ken returned to Orlando, Ken and I ran into each other at a wedding anniversary celebration. We shared memories of times growing up in Griffin Park and attending Jones High School. He always had a big smile. Ken has gone to eternal rest and condolences are extended to his remaining siblings and their families. "Chicken Man" leaves memories of precious times for many who knew him.

“ Uncle Ken was well known to many. I will always treasure the memories of him when we lived in Kentucky. Only man I knew that could make banana pudding from scratch. Uncle Ken you will truly be missed. I love you. Rev 21: 3,4.
