

Kenneth Leroy Sibert

October 14, 1954 - February 23, 2015

Kenneth Leroy Sibert, born October 14, 1954, in Eustis Florida, passed away February 23, 2015 in Orlando, Florida.

Kenneth is preceded in death by his wife, the late Carrie Sibert, his parents George Sibert, Sr. and his mother Florida, and his sister Martha.

Kenneth was taught at an early age how to pray and trust his Lord and Savior. From that teaching he learned the importance of family, relationships, and people. He was very passionate about his music, his job career, and his love of sports.

In his love of sports he was a true competitor. He took special interest in holiday gatherings with family and this was always the highlight moment of his time spent; and through any and all situations he was one of the greatest listeners you could have.

He was a caring, loving brother, husband friend, father, grandfather, uncle, brother in law and the best man. He was also a true spiritual believer, very kind, understanding and always had time to lend an ear when you needed to talk. And last, but not least he loved to laugh and have fun. He appreciated all types of music, and he loved people. Ken was truly a beautiful human being.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory his two daughters Dr. Jua'nese Williams, Vero Beach and Africa Christia (Willie), Orlando. One brother George Sibert, Jr. (Gwen), Orlando; one sister Mary Sharon Thompson (Stuart), Mount Dora; his sister in law Yvonne Lindsey (Bennie); and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

“ Ken and I enjoyed many moments together talking and laughing, he had a laugh to could hear for miles. Ken really enjoyed playing billard, we had so much fun together. I enjoy more than ever discussing the Bible with Ken, he really enjoy the discussion and answer we founded in God's Word. Ken was a great listener and friend.

“ Ken and I, Cathy Loving Griffin, started working together for Southern Bell on Mercy Drive for several years. We went to the Semoran D.A. office where we worked there for years. He was always a kind, sweet and loving person. I visited with him at the Rosemont nursing home on several occasions. He was a very good friend and will be missed.
