“ There's my Kenny! With that wonderful, sheepish, cheshire cat looking grin. So happy he never lost that. Where to begin ? Just one memory with Kenny, as we grew up together in the 60's-80's in New York's East Elmhurst and there are many. However, one stands out in particular. It was when Kenny first got his braces and folks were calling him tin grin and all other kinds of stuff. I told him pay no mind because he was going to have the best teeth in the neighborhood after wearing his braces for about a thousand years. He just looked at me like I should be put away in an insane asylum. LOL Awwww, what a guy, what a great person, oh so nice, and what FUN we had! Rest in Sweet Peace, my friend. No more suffering, pain, just ALL joy and you can grin and smile your smile as long as you desire! <3

“ Kenny will always be that smiling, playful little boy from Butler Street that we remember. We can still see him and Mitch running up and down the block. There will always be a special place in our hearts for this member of the Butler Street gang.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your lose. The Bible calls death an enemy of man so we can see why it is so painful when we lose someone we love. Yet the Bible does not leave us without hope as is states in Revelation 21: 3,4 ?With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. 4?And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
It is wonderful to know that God loves us and has made a provision for us to see our dead love ones again. May God give you peace and comfort

I will miss the first friend I ever had greatly. Born 23 days a part and growing up next door to each other we were almost twins in our early years on Butler St. Rest in peace my friend.
