“ Kenni, as previous Walmart employee, was altruistic, hardworking, personable individual who went out his way to help others. A few months ago, I visited Walmart for some groceries. As I parked my vehicle in the middle parking area, the vehicle was experiencing parking issues. The gear change was inoperative and could not set the vehicle in park. Kenni noticed my problem as my car moved slowly in the lot missing a parked vehicle. Immediately, Kenni stopped gathering the shopping carts and ran towards me to assist. Other male customers also jumped in. We were successful and able to park the car. His actions was very much appreciated. I was able to have the vehicle towed to a shop around past midnight. I noticed Kenni was finishing his duty and shift. I was able to THANK HIM and tipped him for his assistance. He will be greatly missed by many. May this talented courageous person rest in the Lord's arms.
