“ THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR LOVE, SUPPORT AND COMMENTS. LET'S CONTINUE WITH THE MEMORIES AND PICTURES AND VIDEOS OF DADDY. IF YOU MET HIM THEN ITS VERY LIKELY YOU HAVE A MEMORY TO SHARE. LET'S FLOOD THIS SITE WITH YOUR POSTS AND SHOW HOW MUCH HE WAS LOVED. TRINI POSSE AND ENGLAND POSSE, LET THE CELEBRATION OF HIS LIFE BEGIN. I FOR ONE WOULD LIKE TO READ OF THE INTERACTIONS HE HAS HAD OVER HIS MANY YEARS!!!

“ Sending condolences and comfort to Mrs. Elaine, Eddy, Averell and Alwyn and the entire Mars family from Charles Smith and family! I personally remember one memory of him coming to England for a wedding and so happen to fly in the same time and day my mom flew in as well. He invited my mom and I to the wedding. I remember at the reception when the music started, well, Mr. Mars got on the dance floor and stayed the whole night dancing no matter the genre of music. He was surely the life of the party! I'm sure his presence will still be amongst us all, in our hearts..., where music is played... and when a pack of cards is getting shuffled for some good ole all fours and romie...

“ You are never prepared for a day like today when you are forced to say goodbye to an angel who was placed here on earth like Papi Mars. He was always so full of life and loved his family more than anything else. Auntie Elaine, my heart goes out to you, the boys and your daughters because seeing you all together always felt like walking into a room full of life, laughter and love. Ramon and I are truly blessed to be a part of your loving family and we will all be reunited with Papi Mars one day in heaven singing "We did it our way"! Until then, continue to live the legacy he built for his family and always remember that you were all loved by him unconditionally.

Lots of love from Ramon and Carene Balkaran from way over here in Trinidad.

“ No better connotation of a MARS...out of this world indeed! The goofiest, charismatic, exotic, and most vibrant grandfather AND father a gyal could ask for. From whooping my bootay in Romie and Five Hundred to “Move it, move it” to “I don’t know, I just don’t know” to endless laughter...meh luv yah bad danny baiiii. I know you up their blasting that radio Sinatra, playing solitaire, sippin leh coffee, and bussin down on that bread and cheese vibin. I owe you (IOU), until we meet again KING, love you 4L❤️✨-Badjohn Mish

My dear uncle wiggie, such a free spirited, smart, funny, full of chats kind of guy.

Mr dance king and all fours champ - “ah coming, ah coming, ah coming, ah coming”.

You will always be lovingly remembered as my dear uncle wiggie. I love you and may god allow your soul to Rest In Peace. You’ve imprinted a lot of happy and loving memories in my heart. Fly high uncle ❤️❤️

A very loving and caring person. As a young boy always looked up to Uncle, he and my Dad, Ralph Poliah worked at JN Harriman, Cross Crossing. Growing up they always together liming with the other elders like Uncle Winston De Gannes, they had Happy Times and lived like family.

Remembered the Beach limes we had together and the Christmas Gatherings.

Great family and They instilled family values which have nurtured and moulded Us into being responsible and dedicated patents.

A fun loving mam but also a disciplinarian, he never faltered with his boys future.

My prayers are with you guys, Aunty Elaine be strong.

On behalf of the Poliah family I extend heartfelt Condolences.

Rest in Peace Uncle, I salute a Great and Humble Man.
