“ My dearest nephew Kevin, i will never forget you, I've loved you since the day you were born. I can't seem to get your contagious laughter out of my head. I know you are watching over us and glad we have finally all come together despite these circumstances. I've shared an abundance of memories with you. There was no bad bone in your body, you cherished your brothers and sisters and protected them every chance you had. You will always be remembered by the huge heart you carried with you at all times. Your passing has taught me to embrace my own family with every breath i take and make sure i tell my children I love them for tomorrow's never promised. I thank you Kevin, thank you for sharing your laughter with us. I will celebrate your life although this pain I have to endure will never be erased. Rest easy papi, until we meet again. <3 I love and miss you sooooo much

“ I met Kevin at my job 711 and through one of my closest friends/brother Rick...from the moment i met Kevin we messed with eachother i would talk trash to him and he would talk it back. We had so many long talks about life. He would confide in me when he was there as i would him when i was feeling down. He was easy to talk to always compassionate. I felt i could always count on him for a lending ear and he would just hug me and talk trash. Lol Everytime Kevin came in he would find me where ever i was and say u smell good. Now can i get a drink as he put his head up in a cocky way lol i would always say u are a pain in my butt go ahead..lol he said u know u love me. I did he became my family as well as Chris whom worked with my son at the paintball field and Justin who went to school with my other son. They were instantly family. Another memory was when he went to PR and called Rick from there and talked to me on the phone i told him i wanted something from there..he asked what i wanted i said flipflops he said i got u ma..then came back without them. I was mad at him so everytime i saw him id mess with him and ask where they were. We would laugh. Then in sept i went to the Bahamas he wanted something from there and i didnt get anything then he was mad lol but we messed with each other every single day. The last time i saw him that tragic night i picked him Rick and Justin and was driving to 711 i was quiet and Kev leans in from the back seat and said whats wrong he always knew...when we got to the store he talked his mess made me laugh and was ready to leave he hugged me said see ya im out i said love ya be careful see u in the morning when i drop Rick off and he was gone...Kev i love you always will u have a special place in my heart. I will miss our talks and goofing off no one can take ur place. Rest in peace see you when i get there.

“ It was like yesterday i can remember the day i meet you at Wekiva high school sitting out in the courtyard at lunch and meeting each other. From that point on we just clicked like bros. And then you going to school with me at sheeler was alot of fun. We laughed joked, and as our home room teacher told u. This was the funny part he said to you. "Ughh to much cocain in my coffee" hahaha that was a funny time. And when mr dixon threw the pen at u omg i died laughing. You were there for me so much hardship times for me when i needed the most. You were like a brother to me. I could call you at anytime and i could tell you anything. And u would sit there and talk to me and listen to me. U were there for me when my best friend past away. My cat buddy. U loved him as much as i did. And me and you were the last people to be around before they put him down. That ment so much to me kevin you have no idea. You changed my life for the good, there's so much stuff we had in common it wasn't funny. You sat there with me my computer while i made my tracks. We even made a beat together. We were gamer bros. We played xbox all night got drunk and had so much fun. U always came up to my job to chill with me laugh with me. You were there to see me get my first house. That means so much to me kevin. There were times we faught and everything but thats what brothers do!! Your apart of me for life kevin and that wont ever change. Its so hard to see you leave this earth at a young age. You had so much to look foward to Kevin. As bright as u were and as smart as u were. U could be anything u wanted to be. I love you kevin with all my heart brother! You will deeply be missed by everyone. Now you can chill with my cat buddy! 😊 R.I.P Kevin Anthony Espinal. I love you brother. Legends will never be forgotten FearingMrWoW!
