

Kimbra Leonard

July 14, 1958 - April 22, 2019

Precious wife and mother, Kimbra Ward Leonard, 60, of Kissimmee, passed away after a long illness on April 22, 2019.

Kim was born on July 14, 1958 in Little Rock Arkansas to Henry and Emma Frances (Nelson) Ward. She moved to the Orlando/Kissimmee area in 1987. Kim married Alan Edward Leonard on October 12, 1991.

Plants and gardening were an early career , but she thoroughly enjoyed her last career of working in education. They had one daughter, Emma Frances, the joy of Kim's life.

Kim's interests included flowers, crafting and she was a friend to everyone she met.

Kim is survived by her husband Alan, daughter Emma, brothers Randy (Sherri) Ward, Rick (Miriam) Ward and many Florida in-laws, family of Alan. A private family Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, April 27, 2019.

Tribute Wall

Terri Hill

“ I was blessed to work with Kim and share in the education of Emma. There was never a day that Kim entered my room without a smile and a positive attitude. As she and I became bed ridden at the same time we shared pictures, motivational messages and allowed each other to vent when we needed someone to listen. I'll miss Kim. I will also look forward to staying in touch with Emma as she begins her journey into adulthood. Rest peacefully my dear friend.

Terri Hill - April 25, 2019 at 09:14 PM

“ Arrive in Style was purchased for the family of Kimbra Leonard.

April 25, 2019 at 05:21 PM