“ Coach Smith was the PE coach that everyone thought was my dad just because we had the same last name. He was truly one of my favorite people at Casselberry Elementary. I'm sorry that I just found out that he passed. He was a really amazing man - with his tube socks and his whistle! We were lucky to have him around growing up in the 80s.

“ I had him way back in 1974 - so he must have been 32 at the time. I remember his dad (?) visiting him on the P.E. field with his VW. They were both quite the characters in such a good way.

“ Coach was a good man. He was a little crazy but he cared deeply and was loved by most everyone who knew him. We shared many memories I will cherish forever, each filled with laughter. We will miss you dearly but rest easy, you've waited a lifetime for the peace you will receive in the afterlife.
