“ I only knew you all for a short while but you all affected me greatly.. I loved taking care of Kurt and walking in to say hi to Stephanie and her mom in the hospital. Thank you for allowing me to take care of him and being part of your life for a short time. The love that I saw in that room was more then I've seen in a long time.. God bless you and comfort you..

“ We were all in our mid-teens when I met Kurt. At first glance I thought he looked like one of those tough-guy, troublemaker types types with that crooked nose, but I quickly found him to be a great guy. I don't often come across people named Kurt, but when I do I immediately measure their character against that guy in Kellnersville who I was lucky enough to call a friend.
