“ Aunt Lavern (Panky), your life was filled with; caring, loving and sharing. Although you were technically my aunt our ages were far closer to a big sister little brother relationship. I will always remember you for your passion for reading which filled most of our phone conversations over the years. Your passion for caring was evident in all you did, You wore your unconditional love for your family on your sleeve and Your unquestionable love for sharing with others was contagious.

If ever there was a life that ended too soon it was truly yours. I'm so happy Lindy your daughter was there with you along with your remaining siblings and your mother. I'm equally happy you lived in Orlando within reach of the majority of your family which allowed them to gather and be with you in your final days. You will truly be missed. Forever love you, Otis C, II

My Auntie always kept it real. When she spoke you knew actually how she felt. I'll miss her personality...her trash talk...the way she walked as if she didn't stank. No more pain...now living life in luxury. I love you but God loved you best.
