

Lavonne W Clay

December 18, 1944 - July 22, 2025

Lavonne W Clay, age 80, A Florida native passed away in Altamonte Springs, Florida on July 22, 2025. She was born on December 18, 1944 in Eustis, Florida to the late Barnes Ware and Helen Robinson. She was the only child born to this union. She had two step siblings, Keith & Marlene whom she loved.

She met and after a brief courtship married the love of her life the late Mr. Willie C Clay and three children were born from this union, Willie, Randrita and Delores. They built a legacy and Lavonne continued her extraordinary journey throughout her life.

Lavonne was a devoted wife, adoring mother, beloved grandmother and a great grandmother (GG). She was employed by the State of Florida until she retired however, her passion was being a consummate homemaker, raising her children and grandchildren alike gave her the greatest joy. After retirement she became a volunteer at Eccleston Elementary and also Lila Mitchell Headstart Center. She was a pillar in her community and was loved by all who knew her. Lavonne received many accolades and achievement awards for doing what she naturally loved doing.

She will be forever loved and sorely missed by her entire family.

“ My condolences to The Clay Family. Mrs. Clay was a loving and caring neighbor in the Carver Shores Neighborhood. Mrs. Clay would volunteer to pickup and dropoff my daughter Ashani to school at Eccleston Elementary. I'm in great honor to have met such a caring and supportive woman. She'll be dearly missed by our kids.
