

Layton Edwin Milman

March 15, 1961 - September 2, 2014

Layton Milman (53) resident of Ocoee, FL and Orlando (Pine Hills) passed away of natural causes on September 2, 2014.

Layton is survived by his brother Jeff Milman, wife Patty Antony, beloved dogs Rusty and Radar, and a close circle of friends whose love, support, and encouragement sustained him throughout his life and long illness.

Layton owned and operated his own business, LEM Lawncare, until he retired and the business was acquired by long-time friend Russell Bush, also of Ocoee, FL. In his spare time, he enjoyed NASCAR as well as amateur stock car racing and often filmed events for Gordon Motorsports Corp. at racetracks throughout Central Florida, especially the Auburndale and Citrus County Speedways. Other favorite pastimes included trips to Las Vegas, bass fishing tournaments, and spending time with friends on the weekends.

And finally, special thanks, praise and recognition to Vitas Hospice Care and their entire staff at the Winter Garden facility. The care Layton received there was truly excellent in every respect.

May you rest in peace Gambler.
