

Leatha Sue Fogle

December 28, 1926 - April 29, 2023

Leatha Sue Fogle (née Logan), Mom, Grandma, Granny was born December 28, 1926, in Doniphan, Mo. Her early life was shaped by the “Great Depression” and by her father’s death in her early childhood. In Leatha’s teens, her mother was crippled with arthritis and Leatha became the principal caregiver for her mother for the remainder of her mother’s life. At 20 she married Carter Fogle and soon had two sons Roger and Jim. At 40 she moved to Washington state and opened an antique store in Hoquiam, WA. The antique store was successful and fulfilling for her. She and Carter moved to Florida after retiring to be near family and she enjoyed her children and grandchildren for the next 30 years. In 2000 her husband, Carter, of 50 years passed. She was blessed with great neighbors and friends, and she will be greatly missed. She is survived by her two sons, two daughters-in-law Pat and Pam, 5 grandchildren, Stephanie, Kirsten, Lori, Jeffrey and Ryan, and 11 great grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren. Services to be held in Doniphan, Missouri.
