

Lester L. Ferraro Sr.

December 3, 1940 - August 31, 2023

Lester Livingston Ferraro Sr. was born December 3rd, 1940, to the union of Arnold Ferraro and Iris Wallace Kerr in Ancón, Panama Canal Zone.

He moved to Brooklyn, NY in his late 20's. There he became an exterminator and locksmith owning New Era Locksmith and Exterminating Company for many years. In his off time he enjoyed motorcycle riding and even became a member of the Imperial Bikers Club. In the late 80's he moved to Florida where he again became a business owner of Harrari Shoes. He also opened a kiosk at OBT Flea Market where he became well liked and known for cutting keys.

He developed a love for grilling and smoking meat. He loved traveling back and forth to Panama and Elliott always came through with the hook up.

Lester was very loved by his family and will be missed dearly.

Lester departed this life on August 31, 2023, preceded by his father, Arnold (Nando), his mother, Iris, his brother, Dickie, his brother, Harry, and his sister, Ruthie.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: his siblings, Edna, Eduardo and Kathleen. His children, Edna Belgrave, Terri Browder, Lester Livingston

Ferraro Jr, and Elliott Ferraro. His grandchildren, Augustus, Diamond, Khyle, Kendrick, Delia, Julissa, Juliana and great-grandchildren, Aries and Ezekiel.
