“ To the family, Always remember, all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. The bible's resurrection accounts give us a sure hope for the future. In paradise, those lost for now will be reunited with their loved ones. What a beautiful promise from God. John 5:25 & 28

“ I will always remember travelling to Florida with Nana and Grandpa and Auntie (that's what i called her) the summer of 1976. Auntie and I rode in the back in the camper all the way down and back. Those were the days before seatbelts. Auntie was 6 years older than me so she would I pick on me if I hung to close to her, You have to remember she was 14 and having an 8 yr old tagging around with her around campgrounds was not her idea as fun. Nonetheless she always treated me fairly. I will never forget that summer. As we grew older we didn't get to see much of each other. She did however eventually allow me to call her Lisa (much to the chagrin of my grandmother--her mother). Lisa, you will be missed. Love your nephew David. xo.
