

Lloyd Dwayne Pillow

July 14, 1963 - April 20, 2024

Celebration of Life services for Dwayne Pillow, 60, of Orlando, Florida will be conducted on May 2, 2024, at 6 p.m. at Community Funeral Home and Sunset Cremations, 910 W. Michigan Street, Orlando, FL, 32805.

Dwayne went to rest in Jesus surrounded by his family and close loved ones on Saturday, April 20, 2024. Dwayne was born on July 14, 1963, in Fort Worth, TX to Larry and Helen (Henderson) Pillow.

On October 20, 1990, Dwayne married the love of his life, Lisa Pillow in Alvarado, Texas. They were blessed with two beautiful daughters: Mackenzie and Erin. Both girls adored spending time with their dad and both share his dry sense of humor.

Before 2018, the bulk of Dwayne's career in Texas was in the oil and gas industry. While in Orlando, his most recent position has been with Ravago Chemicals where he worked as an Inventory Coordinator.

Dwayne loved the Denver Broncos, any kind of off-road racing, NASCAR, the Texas Rangers, an avid love of soccer, and all sports in general. He was also known for his lifelong love of Dr. Pepper, Jeeps, his cats (Zelda and Athena), and helping Lisa and the girls with theatre and all things Disney. His favorite Disney character was Pluto and Baymax was a close second.

Family and relationships were everything to Dwayne. Everyone was welcome at Dwayne and Lisa's house and visitors instantly felt adopted into their fun-loving family unit. Many of Mackenzie and Erin's friends considered Dwayne a second parent. All will greatly miss him, but his legacy will live on in his girls and all who had the pleasure of knowing and loving him.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by his wife, Lisa Pillow, and daughters; Mackenzie Pillow of Orlando, FL, and Erin Pillow of Orlando, FL; brother, Dwight Pillow (Shelia) of Paris, Texas; Diane Franklin (Jerry) of Burleson, Texas and by four nephews and four great-nieces and a host of family friends and loved ones.

“ Dwayne has been the brother I never had for 47 years. We had lots of adventures whether it was almost dying in the purple Toyota or riding dirt bikes in Colorado. We talked daily for the past 20 years at least once day about Jeeps, muscle cars or the cares of the day. I love you brother and will always miss you. I still find myself finding stuff on Facebook and wanting to send it to you so we could start a conversation about it. I will probably do that for the rest of my life. I will see you in heaven brother.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Dwayne’s passing. I unfortunately have not seen Dwayne since high school but he was an absolute hoot! I will always remember his warm, kind and gentle nature. His awesome smile was infectious. The world is a lesser place without you bud. Rest in Peace brother.

Dwayne was my little brother. I'am so glad I got to spend 6 weeks with him taking him to rehab and just sitting and talking to him. We would watch soccer together and would try and explain the rules to me. We would talk about our child hood and the stupid stuff we did . I told him how much I loved him and he would get this. But god had other plans. I am having a really hard time understanding why he had to go so soon. Love and miss you lil bro until we see each other again.

“ Dwayne’s evermore nature will be greatly missed. I can’t think of him without seeing that devilish grin and laugh. His wit will be welcomed in heaven. Praying that the good, happy, and humorous side of him is a lasting memory to Lisa and the girls to help get them through trying times. Celebrate the memory of this great man, friend, husband, and father. Love and miss you, Warner!! God Bless!! ❤️🙏

I have known Dwayne and his siblings since we were young kids at church and school. Dwayne was always one of the good guys, always smiling, encouraging others, and making the world around him a better place. Like most we lost touch after graduation. I have enjoyed reconnecting through face book over the last several years and watching his post about his family, his Broncos, and his off road fun. I never knew Dwayne to have an enemy and never met anybody that knew him that did not like him and speak highly of him. He was that good of a person and will be missed by all that knew him. Prayers up for all his family and friends.

Sending lots of love and hugs to you three. We love you and are here if you need us for anything. Paul and I and Grandma are praying for you. Tons. This will be the hardest thing you have ever gone through in your life. It will not be easy, and it sucks so much, but you are strong. You will make it through. I love y'all so much. ~Aunt Val

(I opted for a memorial tree because I know Lisa has a love/hate relationship with plants.)
