My dearest friend...I'm so very sorry to find out at GOOGLE. that you are gone !!! My heartfelt sympathy to Mary & Claire. . I called her a few times & no answer. I left a message. I wish Mary or Claire will call me. We have been friends in the Philippines & we lived same room at the dorm & played SCRABBLE until late at night under a candlelight. Lolit will call next at work to tell me she's going home to my family in Batangas. She's done w/ her one month duty so she'll go stay w/ my welcoming family. We were like SISTERS. She went to our house & stayed for one to two weeks with me in Manila working. I called her from. time to time when she can talk & so excited telling me of her suitors & talking about mine.. She was so happy last time I talked to her.

She told me too THAT SHES ALREADY TIRED GOING TO THE DOCTORS. TO THE HOSPITAL... XRAYs. ETC. Will missed you terribly but forever be in my heart. RIP my darling. best friend 💕💕💕

“ It was great to meet Mama Lolita (Nanay) and walk with her as she told me stories when she was also a cantor for the Church and how she was also a part of the Filipino community. May she now be happy in heaven! 🙏 Chito Flores

“ What a precious friend Lolita was!!! The first time I met her was when her little daughters, Mary and Claire, were in the children’s choir. They were chosen to present the gifts at Mass. Lolita hand made a beautiful loaf of bread for them to carry. I knew right then that she was a special moma. Since then we got to be great friends when she joined the choir. She was a very loyal member and was there for EVERY event. She will always be remembered for her beautiful fruit platters, ensomatas, smiling face and hospitality. She will be missed by so many and will always be remembered by her love of St. John Vianney. Love you Lolita and will see you again in heaven where we will sing praises to God in person. 🌹❤️😭

The most beautiful tribute to her mom is the children she has left behind. And Lola left beautiful children and grandchildren in so many friends

“ I tried calling Lolit a few times in the last several months but no answer. I guessed she was already quite ill. She's an old high-school friend whom I remember for the marching orders she gave in our PE class. She laughed when I told her this decades later. That laugh and soothing voice remains in my memory. My condolences to her bereaved family.

“ My family loved Lola and she loved us, too. She once came to my house and stayed for about nine hours teaching me how to make ensaimada. The conversation never lagged the whole time she was here. She met my parents once and every time I went to visit my parents thereafter, she always sent along a batch of ensaimada to deliver to them. She always greeted me with a big hug, a big smile, and told me I was too skinny. I loved how she loved on my family. She was indeed a bright light for us and we will miss her fiercely.

“ For many years Lolita and I sang side by side in the St. John Vianney adult choir. I know in my heart that she is now singing soprano in the Choir of Angels.

“ Growing up, Lola was so present in my life as a God Child to the Klemm family that her role eventually blurred into my grandma too. Her classic greeting was “B, Do you have some sugar for me?” At which point I’d run as fast as I could into her arms and hug her as tight as I could. She truly a light of God and blessing to each heart (and plant) she touched.

Our hearts are saddened as we heard the news of her passing! Ate Lolit was introduced to me as our adopted sister by my older sister, Naty Ordon, who had developed sisterhood with her when she moved to Orlando! She's been our Ate since & always shared sisterly advice most especially when I lost my husband ! She taught me how to be strong, raising 3 kids of her own & mine as well! We would spend hours talking in the St. John Vianney parish parking lot after the early morning masses! Time goes by as we reminisce our lives & before we knew it, we would be sweating under the heat as it would be 10-11am already ! Ate Lolit , I will surely miss those tet-a-tet with tears & laughter In the parking lot !!! Say hi to my mother & Greg for me! Your memories will stay with me forever ! Our deepest sympathy to those you left behind.. Claire & Matt, Mary & family 🙏
