“ Louie was a genuine happy person. Even in the middle of his crisis, he had an amazing positive attitude. It was really inspiring to me and as well to my family.
It was a pleasure sharing time with him.
And know he is no longer suffering, he went with his big smile to meet our Lord Jesus.

“ A Special shout out to My Cousin Louie;
He passed on last night to join God in Heaven. He will join as well his Sister, Brother, and Dad. He is survived by his Moather. God be with her. From my age of 6 till about 16, he was the rock in my life. He, his brother and me and mine were inseperable. We were the Thrill seekers. We broke into pools, saw Bruce Lee movie marathons, ate Clydes Donuts and did the beaches. I love him for that, as he was our leader. It was he who introduced me to the best pizza in the whole world-C&T. May the Lord be with his family and loved ones. R.I.P. God Speed!
